We Eat Too Much.
Railroads and Land.
We Send Brains and Money.
Bad Cotton News.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE.

(The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune).

Prof. Max Rubner of Berlin says Americans eat more on the average—3,308 calories daily—than any other nation. England comes next, with 2,997 calories.

It is certain that this country eats too much, and wastes about as much as it eats. Half we eat keeps us alive. One quarter keeps the doctors alive, and one quarter supports the undertakers and cemetery owners. Eat half, leave the table for 10 minutes and once digestion starts you'll know you've eaten enough.

German wise men figure that our earth, taxed to capacity, could produce enough to feed nine thousand million human beings, about six times the number on earth now.

Such estimates are worthless. If, as Haldane suggests, scientists succeed in making sugar about as cheap as sawdust and if the earth is intensively cultivated, there is no limit to the number that the earth could feed. Some of us might have to live up in the air permanently, as many Chinese live on boats, for lack of room on land.

With sharks and other sea wolves killed off, the ocean alone, could supply enough food for 10 billion human beings easily.

The whole western coast should be interested in the campaign to shorten the train time betewen the Atlantic and the Pacific. Three nights on the train from New York to Los Angeles can easily be accomplished.

Last August a shipment of silk from Yokohama to New York, traveled 3,123 miles from Seattle to New York in 73 hours, 25 minutes. The running time of a Pullman passenger car between New York and Los Angeles is 91 hours. Too long.

The citizens of Florida are working at improved transportation in a manner that will interest California, and it is to be hoped, wake up the transcontinental lines.

Last Monday at Fort Myers on Florida's west coast, the biggest mass meeting of citizens on record heard S. Davies Warfield, president of the Seaboard Air Line, promise that he would run another railroad, his own, into Fort Myers, the interstate commerce commission approving. Over 300 citizens subscribed money to provide terminal sites.

Heaven may give a land everything it needs—climate, soil, sunshine, beauty. But all is vain without adequate transportation.

Florida shows appreciation of the new railroad building that Mr. Warfield has done and is doing there.

California will show appreciation, at least as great, to the Santa Fe, the Union Pacific and any line that will take one night out of the transcontinental trip, thus bringing the Atlantic and the Pacific 600 miles nearer to each other.

Winston Churchill, discussing tariff on silk in the house of commons, drew from his dispatch case silk things, including stockings and proved his point. The house wondered at his versatility.

That isn't surprising. Churchill is the son of an American woman, Miss Jerome, whose father was W. R. Travers' partner in the old Wall Street firm of Travers & Jerome. Our young girls carry brains as well as money to Europe.

Davis and Ferguson Pay Fines After Automobile Crash

C. H. Davis, of Chester, one of the four young people who figured in the automobile crash at the top of the Lisbon hill in Pleasant Heights, late Tuesday night, was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $10.80, when he was arraigned before Mayor Brown last night on a charge of intoxication.

Silas Ferguson, driver of the car, who was charged with reckless driving in connection with permitting four passengers to ride in one seat, was also assessed $10.80 when he pleaded guilty. Both fines were paid.

No charges were preferred against Misses Fay Wilson and Georgia Ivers, both of 325 Broadway, who were also passengers in the machine which was wrecked in a crash against a telephone pole.

LONGO SETS UP ALIBI DEFENSE AT TRIAL FOR MURDER IN WELLSVILLE

Seventeen Witnesses, Testifying in Lisbon Courtroom, Declare Accused Canton Man Was Eating Supper in Sweetheart's Home When Mrs. Vincenzio Desmonia Was Fatally Shot.

DOMINICK STRADA, AWAITING TRIAL ON LIKE CHARGE, CALLED TO STAND

Prisoner's Fiance, and Her Mother and Father Declare he Was Seated at Table in Dining Room of Sabbato Home With Strada When Shots Were Fired.

An alibi was set up by the defense today in the trial of Fred Longo, of Canton, charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Vincenzio Desmonia, who was fatally shot Sunday night, February 22, last, when she opened the door of her home in Wellsville in response to a knock.

Seventeen witnesses, including Dominick Strada, also of Canton, a prisoner in the county jail awaiting trial on a murder indictment in connection with the Desmonia case, testified before Judge James Glenn, of Coshocton, in common pleas court at Lisbon, that Longo was eating his supper in the dining room of the home of Michael Sabbato, father of his fiancee, in Third street, Wellsville, when the woman was shot down.

Miss Margaret Sabbato, a Wellsville school girl, who admitted she is engaged to wed Longo, corroborated the alibi testimony of the other witnesses.

The witnesses also said that Strada was a member of the dinner party, and he, too, was in the dining room of the Sabbato home when Mrs. Desmonia was fired upon.

Case Soon to Reach Jury.

Longo, Strada said, accompanied him in the Strada automobile from Canton to Wellsville to visit at the home of his swetheart.

The defense is expected to rest this afternoon, following which arguments will begin and Judge Glenn will deliver his charge to the jury.

Predictions were made that Longo's fate will rest in the hands of the jury before nightfall.

Indications are the case against Strada will depend upon the outcome of the Longo trial. In the event of Longo's acquittal, it is not improbable that the indictment against Strada will be nolled.

Attorneys James E. O'Grady, of Wellsville, and W. B. Moore, of Lisbon, are defending Longo, while Prosecutor Robert M. Brookes and his assistant, John E. Bauknecht, of East Palestine, are representing the state.

Samuel Yatti on Stand.

When court opened this morning, Samuel Yatti, who married Millie Sabbato, was the first witness called by the defense. Yatti told of Longo and Strada arriving at the Sabbato home at 11 o'clock the morning of February 22 and parking their car opposite the house. He said that during the afternoon, he, Longo and Strada took a walk to Twelfth street to visit friends and returned about 5 or 6 o'clock. He testified that Longo and Strada were at the table in the dining room when the shots were fired. When asked by Prosecutor Brookes if he was willing to do anything to help Longo out, he replied: "What can I help him. I know he's not the person who done anything."

Testimony that Longo and Strada were in the Sabbato home when the fatal shooting occurred was also given by Rocco Frontone, 15, a Wellsville high school boy. Under cross-examination he said that Longo and Sabbato went out on the street after the shots were fired with the rest of the people who were in the home.

Bride-Elect Is Witness.

Margaret Sabbato, an eighth grade pupil in Wellsville, said she was in her home when the shooting occurred and that the family was eating supper. She testified that Longo and

GIRL WITNESS AVOIDS CHUMS AS END COMES IN JONES CASE

Ethel Kun, 15, Wants to Quit Lorain School.

JURY DISAGREES

Pastor's Daughter Refuses to Discuss Elyria Trial.

LORAIN, O., May 14.—Ethel Kun, just 15 years old, but with experiences that usually come in maturer years, doesn't want to return to her studies in the eighth grade now that the trial of Lucille Jones, charged as a "procuress" has ended—tentatively, at least.

The young girl who blasted her own reputation when she took the witness stand to accuse the Lorain minister's daughter of responsibility for her own indiscretions with men, declared today that she cannot go back to school "because my teachers and the girls think I'm bad." She hastens to add: "The boys treat me all right, though."

Lucille Jones, who now faces the prospect of a new trial as the result of the discharging of the jury when it disagreed yesterday, refused to discuss the case today.

Her father, Rev. I. Howard Jones, also refused to talk. "There is nothing I can say," he said.

Second Trial Uncertain.

ELYRIA, May 14.—Prosecutor D. A. Baird will probably decide today whether or not he will again bring before a jury for trial Miss Lucille Jones, 20, daughter of Rev. T. Howard Jones, Lorain clergyman. The jury deliberating upon the evidence introduced in an indictment charging her with having procured Ethel Kun, 15-year-old girl, for William Monschein, reported late last night they were hopelessly divided and were discharged by Judge A. R. Webber.

Miss Jones either may be brought to trial again on this indictment or upon another, charging her with soliciting or attempting to solicit.

The jury, it was reported, stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. The men, of whom there were nine on the jury, were said to have furnished the not guilty ballots, and the three women and two of the men were reported to have voted guilty.

Another Sensational Case.

LORAIN, May 14.—Another juvenile vice sensation which may reach the proportions of the Lucille Jones case was revealed here today by Police Chief Theodore Walker and Probation Officer Harriet Cobb following the arrest of a 17-year-old Lorain girl in a downtown hotel.

According to Chief Walker, the girl told authorities of "wild parties" in a prominent Lorain dentist's office. She gave the names of a score of other young girls who had participated in such parties, the chief said.

It was stated by Chief Walker that the girl had informed him and Mrs. Cobb that Lucille Jones had made a date for her with a man, but that she did not keep the date.

The dentist probably will be arraigned in probate court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the girl, Chief Walker said.

BUDDY POPPY DAY MAY 23

Foreign War Veterans Will Aid Disabled Service Men.

Cloth poppies made by disabled World war veterans, will be sold here on Saturday, May 23, under auspices of the ladies' Auxiliary of Private Eddy Post No. 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The "buddy" poppy campaign has the endorsement of President Coolidge, Governor Donahey and Mayor Brown. Cloth replicas of the bloom, which dots the fields in Flanders, are made in the Veterans of Foreign Wars factory in Massachusetts by men, whose disabilities are such that they cannot take up vocational training or support themselves in any other manner.

Heretofore the "buddy" poppy campaign in East Liverpool has been spread out over a period of one week, but this year an effort will be made to wind up the drive in one day. Mrs. Laura Hughes is chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign. The sale will be in charge of high school students and Boy Scouts.

$200,000,000 NEEDED TO ENFORCE LAW AGAINST LIQUOR SMUGGLING

Estimate Made by Observers of Government's Gigantic Drive to Exterminate Rum Row in North Atlantic.

NEW YORK, May 14—If prohibition and liquor smuggling laws are to be enforced to the letter in United States the sixty-ninth congress must appropriate over $200,000,000 for the job.

That is one of the concrete conclusions of both official and unofficial observers of the government's gigantic drive to exterminate rum row, it was learned today.

This year's cost of enforcement of prohibition laws and operating the coast guard was approximately $40,000,000 and it is highly unlikely that congress will exceed that figure materially in the next budget regardless of what experts believe is necessary.

A survey of the rum situation disclosed that to afford air-tight protection to the coasts, the government must maintain a fleet of close to 100 sea-going cutters, 200 heavily armed patrol boats and a complement of smaller craft. It would take 7,000 to 10,000 men to man this "navy".

Cost of Dry Navy.

"Even that tremendous force would not be an absolute guarantee that no liquor would come in", a high official said, 'but it is the minimum force required to do the work right."

To create a prohibition navy of this proportion would mean an initial

Iowa Man Meets King by Brushing Aside Formality

WEMBLEY, England, May 14.—While some Americans spend thousands of dollars to be presented to King George at court through diplomatic introduction, John Cownie of Iowa brushed aside all formality today and went up to the king and shook hands with him.

King George and Queen Mary had come here to visit the exhibition. While they were sightseeing, a middle aged man approached the king, put out his hand and said.

"How do you do, King. Shake hands with America."

King George was astounded, according to bystanders, but smiled, shook hands and said:

"I hope you and all Americans are feeling well."

Queen Mary smiled at this. Cownie then said: "Meet my son, King."

Cownie presented his son, and King George shook hands with him.

Forty-five members of the high school band, headed by Director Ralph Johnson, were guests of the Kiwanis club at the weekly luncheon in the Larkins annex, Market street, today.

FOUR-IN-SEAT MOTORIST FINED

John Stevenson, of Wellsville, paid a fine of $5 and costs last night when he was arraigned before Mayor Brown to answer to a charge of violating the traffic ordinance by driving with four passengers in the front seat of his automobile.

Stevenson, accompanied by another man and two girls, was arrested by Captain Conley about 8:30 o'clock last night while driving through the Diamond in a Ford roadster.

Effective Saturday, May 16th, until further notice, Interurban Car leaving Beaver 11:05 p. m. will leave Midland 11:35 p. m. and connect at East Liverpool with car for Wellsville at 12:10 a. m.

THREE ELECTRIC TRAFFIC LIGHTS WILL BE LOCATED IN THE DIAMOND

Iron Signal System, Six Feet in Height, Will be Established at Main Intersections by Police Department.

Three electric traffic lights, weighing approximately 400 pounds each, have been orderd by the police department for use in the Diamond it was announced today. They will supplant the signal system now being used at the three main street intersections.

The signs, constructed entirely of iron, are six feet in height. On the top is mounted the lamp, which can be seen from four points and which will be illuminated by electricity, controlled from a switch in the police booth. A metal pennant, donated by the Kiwanis club, bearing the word "Welcome," will adorn it. The signs will cost about $75 each.

According to Chief McDermott, the smaller traffic signs are often used as targets for reckless automobile operators who drive after midnight. The new signs are of such weight that they cannot be easily overturned, much less destroyed.

The signals, which are being made in East Liverpool, are ready for the painter and will be installed within two or three weeks. They will be painted in blue and white.

The jury deliberating upon the evidence introduced in an indictment charging her with having procured Ethel Kun, 15-year-old girl, for William Monschein, reported late last night they were hopelessly divided and were discharged by Judge A. R. Webber.

Miss Jones either may be brought to trial again on this indictment or upon another, charging her with soliciting or attempting to solicit.

The jury, it was reported, stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. The men, of whom there were nine on the jury, were said to have furnished the not guilty ballots, and the three women and two of the men were reported to have voted guilty.

Another Sensational Case.

LORAIN, May 14.—Another juvenile vice sensation which may reach the proportions of the Lucille Jones case was revealed here today by Police Chief Theodore Walker and Probation Officer Harriet Cobb following the arrest of a 17-year-old Lorain girl in a downtown hotel.

According to Chief Walker, the girl told authorities of "wild parties" in a prominent Lorain dentist's office. She gave the names of a score of other young girls who had participated in such parties, the chief said.

It was stated by Chief Walker that the girl had informed him and Mrs. Cobb that Lucille Jones had made a date for her with a man, but that she did not keep the date.

The dentist probably will be arraigned in probate court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the girl, Chief Walker said.

BUDDY POPPY DAY MAY 23

Foreign War Veterans Will Aid Disabled Service Men.

Cloth poppies made by disabled World war veterans, will be sold here on Saturday, May 23, under auspices of the ladies' Auxiliary of Private Eddy Post No. 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The "buddy" poppy campaign has the endorsement of President Coolidge, Governor Donahey and Mayor Brown. Cloth replicas of the bloom, which dots the fields in Flanders, are made in the Veterans of Foreign Wars factory in Massachusetts by men, whose disabilities are such that they cannot take up vocational training or support themselves in any other manner.

Heretofore the "buddy" poppy campaign in East Liverpool has been spread out over a period of one week, but this year an effort will be made to wind up the drive in one day. Mrs. Laura Hughes is chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign. The sale will be in charge of high school students and Boy Scouts.

$200,000,000 NEEDED TO ENFORCE LAW AGAINST LIQUOR SMUGGLING

Estimate Made by Observers of Government's Gigantic Drive to Exterminate Rum Row in North Atlantic.

NEW YORK, May 14—If prohibition and liquor smuggling laws are to be enforced to the letter in United States the sixty-ninth congress must appropriate over $200,000,000 for the job.

That is one of the concrete conclusions of both official and unofficial observers of the government's gigantic drive to exterminate rum row, it was learned today.

This year's cost of enforcement of prohibition laws and operating the coast guard was approximately $40,000,000 and it is highly unlikely that congress will exceed that figure materially in the next budget regardless of what experts believe is necessary.

A survey of the rum situation disclosed that to afford air-tight protection to the coasts, the government must maintain a fleet of close to 100 sea-going cutters, 200 heavily armed patrol boats and a complement of smaller craft. It would take 7,000 to 10,000 men to man this "navy".

Cost of Dry Navy.

"Even that tremendous force would not be an absolute guarantee that no liquor would come in", a high official said, 'but it is the minimum force required to do the work right."

To create a prohibition navy of this proportion would mean an initial

Iowa Man Meets King by Brushing Aside Formality

WEMBLEY, England, May 14.—While some Americans spend thousands of dollars to be presented to King George at court through diplomatic introduction, John Cownie of Iowa brushed aside all formality today and went up to the king and shook hands with him.

King George and Queen Mary had come here to visit the exhibition. While they were sightseeing, a middle aged man approached the king, put out his hand and said.

"How do you do, King. Shake hands with America."

King George was astounded, according to bystanders, but smiled, shook hands and said:

"I hope you and all Americans are feeling well."

Queen Mary smiled at this. Cownie then said: "Meet my son, King."

Cownie presented his son, and King George shook hands with him.

THE S. E. L. & B. V. T. CO.

THREE ELECTRIC TRAFFIC LIGHTS WILL BE LOCATED IN THE DIAMOND

Iron Signal System, Six Feet in Height, Will be Established at Main Intersections by Police Department.

Three electric traffic lights, weighing approximately 400 pounds each, have been orderd by the police department for use in the Diamond it was announced today. They will supplant the signal system now being used at the three main street intersections.

The signs, constructed entirely of iron, are six feet in height. On the top is mounted the lamp, which can be seen from four points and which will be illuminated by electricity, controlled from a switch in the police booth. A metal pennant, donated by the Kiwanis club, bearing the word "Welcome," will adorn it. The signs will cost about $75 each.

According to Chief McDermott, the smaller traffic signs are often used as targets for reckless automobile operators who drive after midnight. The new signs are of such weight that they cannot be easily overturned, much less destroyed.

The signals, which are being made in East Liverpool, are ready for the painter and will be installed within two or three weeks. They will be painted in blue and white.

country depends on the other's prosperity.

Somebody said it was amazing that human beings intelligent enough to make a watch still believe in ancient superstitions.

It is also amazing that the human race, intelligent enough to build up and protect fortunes of hundreds of millions has not found a way to protect and decently encourage men that work the ground and produce the real wealth.

President Coolidge and Mr. Mellon have been housekeeping successfully. Mr. Lord, head of the budget bureau, informs the President that for the national fiscal year ending June 30, there will be a surplus of $108,000,000. The country is fortunate in having Mr. Mellon, who knew enough about money to make a few hundred millions for himself, running the national money department and Mr. Coolidge who seems to think a president should handle all the people's money as carefully as he would his own.

Business on a big scale is growing in big things and little things. One chain of grocery stores does a business of more than $352,000,000 a year.

One five and ten store chain a little while ago announced as its ambition a business of $60,000,000 ayear. It does now more than $250,000,000 a year.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeesing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calonite powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

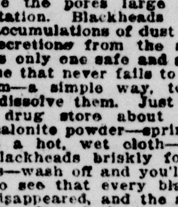

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at all leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at J. D. Holloway's. adv.

Longo Sets Up Alibi

Strada were at the table and that they left about 10 o'clock. When she was asked who went out to the car when Longo and Strada started for home, she replied, "Mother, dad and I went out with him to the machine. It was near our gate."

The witness testified under cross-examination, she was aged 16 years and that she was engaged to wed Longo.

"Who made the arrangements?" Mr. Brookes asked.

"He talked to mother about that."

"That's all," said the prosecutor.

Millie Yatti, a sister of the preceding witness, offered similar testimony. Under cross-examination, Mr. Brookes asked the question if her statement was not substantially the same as made before the grand jury. She replied, "I tell the truth always. The truth goes."

She also testified that because of previous letters Longo had been expected the Sunday, February 15, and that a meal had been prepared for him.

Dominick Strada Testifies.

Dominick Strada, awaiting trial on a murder indictment in connection with Mrs. Desmonia's death, also testified for the defense. He said he had lived in Canton 12 years, was married, the father of three children, and worked in a brick yard.

He said Longo had boarded with him six or seven years and that he was an Albanian, and Longo can speak Italian but cannot read it. He declared that Longo and he left Canton at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, February 22, and arrived in Wellsville about 11. It was his first trip to Wellsville, and they went to the Sabbato home, leaving the car near the house.

Strada testified that they had dinner there and during the afternoon went out for a walk, returning about 5:30 or 6 o'clock. When they returned they said the machine was still where they had left it. He said the family was at dinner in the evening when they heard shots fired, but that he paid little attention to them. After a while they all left the house and saw a crowd of people on the street. He related that they started for home at 10 o'clock.

Under cross-examination, Mr. Brooks asked the witness what he told him when questioned in the city building at Lisbon the night he was arrested. Strada replied that he didn't understand what he was talking about.

"Didn't you say you didn't know anybody was shot," Mr. Brookes asked.

"I didn't understand a word."

Civics Class Attends Trial.

The prosecutor asked the witness if he recalled a conversation he had with him at the county jail when Strada asked when he could see his wife. Strada replied "he always asked that."

He also testified under cross-examination that the curtains were on the car when they left Wellsville and that he did not go to East Liverpool from Wellsville and then to Lisbon, but that he followed the direct road.

The witness, asked by Attorney W. B. Moore, of counsel for the defense, if either he or Longo had a shotgun or revolver that day, replied in the negative.

"Did Longo, in your presence, fire a gun at Mrs. Mike Desmonia," Mr. Moore asked.

"The only gun I saw was my fork at the table."

Judge Glenn had to rap for order after this remark.

The class in civics of the Leetonia high school, 40 in number, in charge of Supt. E. P. Stonebraker, attended the trial today.

Defendant Engaged to Wed.

Nine witnesses yesterday afternoon testified that Longo and Dominick Strada were eating an evening meal in the home of Michael Sabatto on February 22, last, when Mrs. Desmonia was fatally shot. They were members of the Sabatto family, and another guest at the Sabatto home that evening.

Under direct examination the witnesses, including two boys, aged 8 and 10 years, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sabatto, told the same story. Cross-examination by Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes failed to cause them to change their testimony.

Longo, the defendant, is aged 26, and is engaged to Victoria Sabatto, it developed when Michael Sabatto and his wife, Mary, testified.

Thomas Brown, an Italian of Canton, acted as interpreter for the court and the defense. Back of the counsel table for the state sat Interpreter Thomas Campsey, of Lisbon.

When court opened at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Joseph Warren, of 334 Main street, Wellsville, was called by the defense, and he testified to driving the McLain ambulance to the Desmonia home after a call had been received. He said several cars were in the vicinity of the Desmonia home when he arrived, but that he could not identify the make of any of them. His helper was Carl Wolf.

Later in the afternoon Warren was recalled to the stand and testified that while several strangers visited the McLain morgue to view the body of Rocco Benvento, he could not recognize Longo as among the visitors.

Boy is Witness.

While Willis Murray, aged 10, was giving his testimony, Judge Glenn leaned toward the witness, intent upon hearing every word. The boy said he was in the street playing hide and seek with his brother and other companions when he heard shots, and that he became scared and ran west on Broadway toward Fourth street. He testified he saw a man jump "over the fence" at the Ackley house, going toward the hill.

Under cross-examination the boy said that the man was short, wore a soft hat, but that he did not see anything in the man's hands.

Two men were seen by Hugh Connors of 332 Lisbon street, who was standing on the porch of his home holding his baby, shortly after the shooting, he testified. He said five or six shots were fired. Connors declared that he saw a heavy man pass by and run along Lisbon street toward Fourth street and that another fellow came down an alley and traveled west along the switch. He testified that the men were about 20 to 25 feet apart and that one was "on a slow run." One of these men wore a heavy sweater, Connors said. Under cross examination, he said he did not notice any automobiles.

Longo Visited Creatore Home.

Mrs. Mary Creatore, 1205 Commerce street, who was born in Wellsville, declared that Longo and Strada visited her home at 3 o'clock the afternoon of February 22, and that she had known Longo for about five months, and that he had visited her home prior to that date. She testified that Strada and Longo left at 5:30 o'clock that evening.

During the cross-examination, Mrs. Creatore testified that on January 2, last, there was a christening at her home, and among the guests was Longo.

Antonio Creatore, her husband, testified of Longo being at his home the afternoon of February 22.

"Were you ever arrested?" asked Prosecutor Brookes.

"Object!" shouted counsel for the defense.

"This is a matter of bringing out the credibility of the witness, if the court pleases," Mr. Brookes suggested.

"Objections sustained," said the court.

Sabatto Star Witness.

Mr. Brookes made an effort to attack the credibility of a previous witness along the same line, but the court also sustained the objection of the defense.

The star witness for the defense proved to be Michael Sabatto, residing at 228 Third street, Wellsville, the father of 11 children, and who has resided in Wellsville 20 years, according to his testimony.

Sabatto said Longo had proposed to his daughter, Victoria, that he had met the defendant last October or November, and that he had been at his home several times.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 14.—The stock market was steady, but inactive, in the early trading today. The principal independent oil shares, started fractionally higher and sentiment was generally bullish, but buying demand soon ceased and an irregular tone set in. The placing of Marland in the dividend column was a favorable factor.

Professional traders who bought the oil stocks earlier in the week were ready to take profits, and, when little buying demand appeared, most of the early gains were wiped out. Pacific Oil, Louisiana and Midcontinent resisted selling pressure and standard oils made a better showing.

A number of the low priced railroad stocks were taken in hand and pushed up to higher levels in fairly active trading. The St. Pauls sold fractionally higher from the start. Wheeling and Lake Erie, Western Maryland, Chicago Great Western, Rock Island and other roads which are supposed to occupy strategic positions in the proposed consolidation of railroad properties, enjoyed good demand at higher prices.

Copper stocks were all higher

United States Steel Realty lost about 5 points on profit taking following the declaration of an extra 10 per cent stock dividend: American sugar, on which no dividend was declared, sold up 2¼ points from yesterday's low.

Councilmen Will Inspect Proposed Eighth Street Job

Service Director and Engineer Will Accompany Solons on Trip to West End Tomorrow Night.

Councilmen, accompanied by Service Director A. G. Ellis and City Engineer John N. George, will inspect the proposed West Eighth street improvement at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

By the terms of a proposal made the city, the county commissioners and the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company will share in the cost provided council speeds legislation in order to take up the work at the same time that Wells avenue and Lisbon street, Wellsville, are being resurfaced this summer. This plan makes it necessary to close the road to Wellsville but once.

Service Director Ellis estimates the improvement from the West End school to the corporation line, where the job completed by Tatgenhorst & McLaughlin last year begins, will cost about $75,000. It will be necessary for the city to purchase private right of way along both sides of the street from Shadyside avenue to the corporation line, this alone costing about $15,000.

The county will pay $25,000, while the street car company has expressed its willingness to contribute not less than $15,000. Options on the property required in the proposed improvement have already been taken.

Action on the proposal probably will be considered by the solons at their meeting on Friday, May 22.

outlay of $150,000,000. It would cost $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 annually for operation. In addition at least $10,000,000 is needed for land enforcement.

The coast guard now has about 16 cutters. All but four are over 30 years old and soon will be ready for the junk heap, according to the information received here. Of the new ones, the Mojave is flagship of the prohibition navy and the others on special duty.

These facts will be brought out before congressional committees when the real story of the rum war is disclosed in the appropriation's fight, is was declared.

The tentative coast guard appropriation for 1926 is approximately $20,000,000, $8,000,000 less than in 1925. Ten million dollars is contemplated for land enforcement.

Present Warfare is Experiment.

Adequate enforcement of the smuggling laws would require one cruising cutter and two patrol boats for every 100 miles of coast line, according to experts. The coast line, not including bays and inlets, is approximately 10,000 miles, although this mileage is increased to 150,000 if all inlets are included.

The government's naval warfare against rum runners is more or less an experiment to determine just how much can be accomplished with the equipment at hand and how much money would be required for absolute enforcement.

General L. C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury, and generalissimo of prohibition, wants to know just what men and equipment he would need to really dry up the United States. He will soon make a formal report to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

country depends on the other's prosperity.

Somebody said it was amazing that human beings intelligent enough to make a watch still believe in ancient superstitions.

It is also amazing that the human race, intelligent enough to build up and protect fortunes of hundreds of millions has not found a way to protect and decently encourage men that work the ground and produce the real wealth.

President Coolidge and Mr. Mellon have been housekeeping successfully. Mr. Lord, head of the budget bureau, informs the President that for the national fiscal year ending June 30, there will be a surplus of $108,000,000. The country is fortunate in having Mr. Mellon, who knew enough about money to make a few hundred millions for himself, running the national money department and Mr. Coolidge who seems to think a president should handle all the people's money as carefully as he would his own.

Business on a big scale is growing in big things and little things. One chain of grocery stores does a business of more than $352,000,000 a year.

One five and ten store chain a little while ago announced as its ambition a business of $60,000,000 ayear. It does now more than $250,000,000 a year.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calonite powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

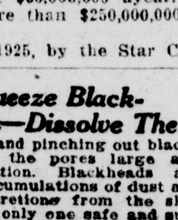

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at all leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at J. D. Holloway's. adv.

Longo Sets Up Alibi

Strada were at the table and that they left about 10 o'clock. When she was asked who went out to the car when Longo and Strada started for home, she replied, "Mother, dad and I went out with him to the machine. It was near our gate."

The witness testified under cross-examination, she was aged 16 years and that she was engaged to wed Longo.

"Who made the arrangements?" Mr. Brookes asked.

"He talked to mother about that."

"That's all," said the prosecutor.

Millie Yatti, a sister of the preceding witness, offered similar testimony. Under cross-examination, Mr. Brookes asked the question if her statement was not substantially the same as made before the grand jury. She replied, "I tell the truth always. The truth goes."

She also testified that because of previous letters Longo had been expected the Sunday, February 15, and that a meal had been prepared for him.

Dominick Strada Testifies.

Dominick Strada, awaiting trial on a murder indictment in connection with Mrs. Desmonia's death, also testified for the defense. He said he had lived in Canton 12 years, was married, the father of three children, and worked in a brick yard.

He said Longo had boarded with him six or seven years and that he was an Albanian, and Longo can speak Italian but cannot read it. He declared that Longo and he left Canton at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, February 22, and arrived in Wellsville about 11. It was his first trip to Wellsville, and they went to the Sabbato home, leaving the car near the house.

Strada testified that they had dinner there and during the afternoon went out for a walk, returning about 5:30 or 6 o'clock. When they returned they said the machine was still where they had left it. He said the family was at dinner in the evening when they heard shots fired, but that he paid little attention to them. After a while they all left the house and saw a crowd of people on the street. He related that they started for home at 10 o'clock.

Under cross-examination, Mr. Brooks asked the witness what he told him when questioned in the city building at Lisbon the night he was arrested. Strada replied that he didn't understand what he was talking about.

"Didn't you say you didn't know anybody was shot," Mr. Brookes asked.

"I didn't understand a word."

Civics Class Attends Trial.

The prosecutor asked the witness if he recalled a conversation he had with him at the county jail when Strada asked when he could see his wife. Strada replied "he always asked that."

He also testified under cross-examination that the curtains were on the car when they left Wellsville and that he did not go to East Liverpool from Wellsville and then to Lisbon, but that he followed the direct road.

The witness, asked by Attorney W. B. Moore, of counsel for the defense, if either he or Longo had a shotgun or revolver that day, replied in the negative.

"Did Longo, in your presence, fire a gun at Mrs. Mike Desmonia," Mr. Moore asked.

"The only gun I saw was my fork at the table."

Judge Glenn had to rap for order after this remark.

The class in civics of the Leetonia high school, 40 in number, in charge of Supt. E. P. Stonebraker, attended the trial today.

Defendant Engaged to Wed.

Nine witnesses yesterday afternoon testified that Longo and Dominick Strada were eating an evening meal in the home of Michael Sabatto on February 22, last, when Mrs. Desmonia was fatally shot. They were members of the Sabatto family, and another guest at the Sabatto home that evening.

Under direct examination the witnesses, including two boys, aged 8 and 10 years, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sabatto, told the same story. Cross-examination by Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes failed to cause them to change their testimony.

Longo, the defendant, is aged 26, and is engaged to Victoria Sabatto, it developed when Michael Sabatto and his wife, Mary, testified.

Thomas Brown, an Italian of Canton, acted as interpreter for the court and the defense. Back of the counsel table for the state sat Interpreter Thomas Campsey, of Lisbon.

When court opened at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Joseph Warren, of 334 Main street, Wellsville, was called by the defense, and he testified to driving the McLain ambulance to the Desmonia home after a call had been received. He said several cars were in the vicinity of the Desmonia home when he arrived, but that he could not identify the make of any of them. His helper was Carl Wolf.

Later in the afternoon Warren was recalled to the stand and testified that while several strangers visited the McLain morgue to view the body of Rocco Benvento, he could not recognize Longo as among the visitors.

Boy is Witness.

While Willis Murray, aged 10, was giving his testimony, Judge Glenn leaned toward the witness, intent upon hearing every word. The boy said he was in the street playing hide and seek with his brother and other companions when he heard shots, and that he became scared and ran west on Broadway toward Fourth street. He testified he saw a man jump "over the fence" at the Ackley house, going toward the hill.

Under cross-examination the boy said that the man was short, wore a soft hat, but that he did not see anything in the man's hands.

Two men were seen by Hugh Connors of 332 Lisbon street, who was standing on the porch of his home holding his baby, shortly after the shooting, he testified. He said five or six shots were fired. Connors declared that he saw a heavy man pass by and run along Lisbon street toward Fourth street and that another fellow came down an alley and traveled west along the switch. He testified that the men were about 20 to 25 feet apart and that one was "on a slow run." One of these men wore a heavy sweater, Connors said. Under cross examination, he said he did not notice any automobiles.

Longo Visited Creatore Home.

Mrs. Mary Creatore, 1205 Commerce street, who was born in Wellsville, declared that Longo and Strada visited her home at 3 o'clock the afternoon of February 22, and that she had known Longo for about five months, and that he had visited her home prior to that date. She testified that Strada and Longo left at 5:30 o'clock that evening.

During the cross-examination, Mrs. Creatore testified that on January 2, last, there was a christening at her home, and among the guests was Longo.

Antonio Creatore, her husband, testified of Longo being at his home the afternoon of February 22.

"Were you ever arrested?" asked Prosecutor Brookes.

"Object!" shouted counsel for the defense.

"This is a matter of bringing out the credibility of the witness, if the court pleases," Mr. Brookes suggested.

"Objections sustained," said the court.

Sabatto Star Witness.

Mr. Brookes made an effort to attack the credibility of a previous witness along the same line, but the court also sustained the objection of the defense.

The star witness for the defense proved to be Michael Sabatto, residing at 228 Third street, Wellsville, the father of 11 children, and who has resided in Wellsville 20 years, according to his testimony.

Sabatto said Longo had proposed to his daughter, Victoria, that he had met the defendant last October or November, and that he had been at his home several times.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 14.—The stock market was steady, but inactive, in the early trading today. The principal independent oil shares, started fractionally higher and sentiment was generally bullish, but buying demand soon ceased and an irregular tone set in. The placing of Marland in the dividend column was a favorable factor.

Professional traders who bought the oil stocks earlier in the week were ready to take profits, and, when little buying demand appeared, most of the early gains were wiped out. Pacific Oil, Louisiana and Midcontinent resisted selling pressure and standard oils made a better showing.

A number of the low priced railroad stocks were taken in hand and pushed up to higher levels in fairly active trading. The St. Pauls sold fractionally higher from the start. Wheeling and Lake Erie, Western Maryland, Chicago Great Western, Rock Island and other roads which are supposed to occupy strategic positions in the proposed consolidation of railroad properties, enjoyed good demand at higher prices.

Copper stocks were all higher

United States Steel Realty lost about 5 points on profit taking following the declaration of an extra 10 per cent stock dividend: American sugar, on which no dividend was declared, sold up 2¼ points from yesterday's low.

Councilmen Will Inspect Proposed Eighth Street Job

Service Director and Engineer Will Accompany Solons on Trip to West End Tomorrow Night.

Councilmen, accompanied by Service Director A. G. Ellis and City Engineer John N. George, will inspect the proposed West Eighth street improvement at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

By the terms of a proposal made the city, the county commissioners and the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company will share in the cost provided council speeds legislation in order to take up the work at the same time that Wells avenue and Lisbon street, Wellsville, are being resurfaced this summer. This plan makes it necessary to close the road to Wellsville but once.

Service Director Ellis estimates the improvement from the West End school to the corporation line, where the job completed by Tatgenhorst & McLaughlin last year begins, will cost about $75,000. It will be necessary for the city to purchase private right of way along both sides of the street from Shadyside avenue to the corporation line, this alone costing about $15,000.

The county will pay $25,000, while the street car company has expressed its willingness to contribute not less than $15,000. Options on the property required in the proposed improvement have already been taken.

Action on the proposal probably will be considered by the solons at their meeting on Friday, May 22.

TWO ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY

Steubenville Pair are Caught by Local Police.

Charged with having robbed a foreigner named Cazo Mondich, yesterday afternoon in a Steubenville boarding house, of wearing apparel and other articles valued at approximately $200, Andy Logash, of Steubenville, was arrested last evening at the Pennsylvania Railroad tower at Yellow Creek, along with Dan Delach, said to have been an accomplice, by Chief of Police John Fultz, Motorcycle Patrolman Newton and other local officers.

The two men were turned over to Chief Paisley, of Toronto, who will take them before Steubenville authorities.

The men are said to have taken six razors, valued at $25; two suits of clothing, valued at $150; shoes, valued at $10; six silk shirts; a check for $7.75 and another for $22.

After the theft they are said to have placed the loot in two suit cases and boarded a freight for Wellsville. They dropped off at Third street, visited the Third street depot of the Pennsylvania railroad and left the two suit cases there, to be shipped to Massillon.

Authorities, however, were tracing their movements and only a short time after they had left the baggage room at the depot, long enough for them to reach Yellow Creek tower, where police believe they were awaiting a ride to main line points, Toronto authorities had notified Chief Fultz.

The men were arrested. They offered no resistance. The two suitcases were obtained from the C. P. baggage room again and later were identified by the owner.

Rejuvenation Subject of Treatise in 1600 B. C.

New York.—A chapter on "How to change an old man into a young man of twenty" has been found in the oldest treatise of medical science and surgery in the world, the Edwin Smith Medical Papyrus of 1600, B. C.

The discovery, made by Prof. James H. Breasted, was announced here by Alexander J. Wall, librarian of the New York Historical society.

The passage on rejuvenation was written on the back of the papyrus, evidently by one of the quacks who infested even the ancient medical profession.

Doctor Breasted has not as yet deciphered its details because he has devoted most of his work to the main text, which he considers the work of "a truly scientific man with an amazing knowledge of real medicine."

One passage reveals that the author knew that paralysis of one side of the body was caused by a brain affection of the other side—a fact lost for more than 3,000 years and rediscovered in modern times.

The papyrus was described by Professor Breasted as being "incomparably the most important body of medical knowledge which has survived to us from ancient Egypt, or, for that matter, from the Orient anywhere."

Russ Fishermen Again Seen in British Ports

Grimsby, England—Bolshevik Russia, which last year began organization of a fishing fleet in northern waters, has begun to extend its business to foreign shores.

The first Soviet steam trawler to be seen in a British port arrived in Grimsby recently and attracted much attention.

The trawler brought a load of fish caught off the Murmansk coast. The captain said other Russian trawlers would arrive regularly in British ports in the near future, as the Soviet fishing fleet was again getting on its feet, and, due to recent additions of fishing smacks, was well fitted to supply the Russian demand for sea food, thus eliminating the necessity of buying fish abroad.

Doctor Has Busy Voyage Prescribing by Radio

Plymouth, England.—Dr. Erskine Gray of the Cunard liner Antonia was kept busy on the last voyage of the Antonia from New York to Plymouth with calls for medical assistance from other vessels.

Four times daily for five days he prescribed by radio for a sailor who had been badly injured on the steamer Bosworth, hundreds of miles away. Then the American steamer Antinous reported its captain seriously ill. Doctor Gray diagnosed the case as one of pneumonia, and for three days prescribed treatment, which proved successful. Several other cases of minor nature, from ships many leagues distant from the Antonia, also were treated by radio.

Dancing Friday night at Rock Springs park. Floor has been resurfaced. Music by Norman Stillwell's Orchestra.

C. E. Society to Meet.

Members of the Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Second Presbyterian church will hold a business meeting and social on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church basement. Young people of the church have been invited to attend.

CONSTIPATION means WEAKNESS

Constipation is practically universal among civilized human beings. It is a national curse causing inefficiency and physical unpreparedness. It causes disease, premature old age, lessens endurance and resistance, and many times fatal illness is directly traceable to its obnoxious results. The clear eye, healthy look, vim, vigor and vitality can be had only when the bowels are free and are moving regularly.

Dr. Caldwell's
SYRUP PEPSIN
The Family Laxative

—promptly relieves constipation. It is not a bitter medicine nor a griping, nauseating, uncomfortable physic. It is a pleasing liquid combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics that Dr. Caldwell, with his long and extensive practice, found effective and an aid to Nature in performing her proper functions when the bowels were mistreated through improper food, lack of exercise, and indifference to physical sanitation.

Gently Restores The Bowels To Health

The first dose will gently ease the bowels to action and as Nature resumes her proper functions, the dose may be gradually decreased. Your bowels should act at least twice daily. If they do not, you need Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. 10,000,000 bottles sold annually prove its effectiveness. Used nationally over 30 years.

It is sold everywhere medicine is sold—and guaranteed. Try it at our risk. Your druggist will return your money if it fails to do as promised.

CONSTIPATION means WEAKNESS

Constipation is practically universal among civilized human beings. It is a national curse causing inefficiency and physical unpreparedness. It causes disease, premature old age, lessens endurance and resistance, and many times fatal illness is directly traceable to its obnoxious results. The clear eye, healthy look, vim, vigor and vitality can be had only when the bowels are free and are moving regularly.

Dr. Caldwell's
SYRUP PEPSIN
The Family Laxative

—promptly relieves constipation. It is not a bitter medicine nor a griping, nauseating, uncomfortable physic. It is a pleasing liquid combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics that Dr. Caldwell, with his long and extensive practice, found effective and an aid to Nature in performing her proper functions when the bowels were mistreated through improper food, lack of exercise, and indifference to physical sanitation.

Gently Restores The Bowels To Health

The first dose will gently ease the bowels to action and as Nature resumes her proper functions, the dose may be gradually decreased. Your bowels should act at least twice daily. If they do not, you need Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. 10,000,000 bottles sold annually prove its effectiveness. Used nationally over 30 years.

It is sold everywhere medicine is sold—and guaranteed. Try it at our risk. Your druggist will return your money if it fails to do as promised.

Drying Up United States

Uncle Sam's "dry navy" has demonstrated in the last week that it is possible to curtail the supply of liquor furnished thirsty Americans by rum runners who ply off the North Atlantic coast. By reason of the rigid cordon established by the coast guard vessels, John Barleycorn is on the run.

The bottling up of Rum Row, with the almost absolute liquor blockade of New York city and its populous environs, is merely the most spectacular phase of the situation. There is a general tightening of enforcement lines ashore, in nearly every section. Federal zeal stimulates local zeal.

Not all of the coast can be guarded, and not all of the inland manufacture and distribution can be stopped. But it is proved that the more profitable markets can be virtually closed and the chief sources of supply cut off. Hold-over liquor stocks are running out.

And with state and municipal dry enforcement agencies cooperating by clean-ups within their jurisdiction, there is certain to be a big decrease in the flow of liquor, no small part of which is poisonous. A tri-partite campaign means a rapid drying up of the country.

French Debt Settlement

The news from Paris is that France is really getting ready to make a debt settlement with America. This follows a pointed reminder from Washington that the United States government is tired of delays and denials, and would like action.

"There will no no appeal to the usual sentimentality," says a correspondent, "but the matter will be approached on a sound business basis."

He adds that "France does not under any circumstances mean to repudiate a debt. The only question is to find a workable formula for its funding, consistent with France's present financial strength. Her financial position is not bad, but only badly complicated. Minister of Finance Caillaux expects to ask the United States to grant France exactly the same terms and facilities for paying her war debt to America as France granted to America after our Revolution."

That sounds reasonable. The important act sticking up like a sore thumb from the history of French loans to America in a time of need is that France demanded payment, and America paid every sou. This was shown forcibly in a recent statement made by Senator Borah, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations.

Americans have never had any desire to play Shylock or impose any hardship on France. But even France's friends on this side of the water have been shocked by the lightness with which the French seemed to regard their obligations. Never, up to this time, has there been any popular recognition in France that France should repay her loans, or any official indication of intent to pay.

Fortunately France now has a finance minister who understands both finance and public sentiment, and realizes how much France herself would benefit by an honest settlement.

Southern Land Settlement

A new land-settling movement is to be planned soon and gotten under way as rapidly as possible. It is directed toward some of the swampy, cut-over and abandoned farm lands of the south. The United States secretary of the interior, the commissioner of reclamation and other officials are to meet soon to discuss the whole problem. Everyone concerned is anxious to see the most business-like procedure followed, with avoidance of many of the mistakes made in settling the west.

Congress has authorized federal co-operation with the states and will appropriate the necessary funds at its next session. There will be more careful selection of the settlers, for it has been discovered that knowledge and interest are essential to agricultural success. Responsibility for financing the settlers will be shared by state and local interests.

In addition to the importance of getting idle or waste land reclaimed and under cultivation, the movement is intended to stem the tide of farm tenancy in the south.

The industrial development of the southern states is a fine thing, but it should not and probably cannot be promoted at the expense of sound agricultural development.

A City Defended

One of the opening features of the new British Empire exhibition at Wembley is a spectacular display called "London Defended." It will begin with a realistic representation of the great fire of London which began in a bakery shop in Pudding lane. The primitive methods of fire-fighting, mostly by buckets of water passed from hand to hand, will be shown. There will be the burning of Old St. Paul's and a final scene of a camp of homeless refugees.

After this comes a display of all the modern equipment for protecting a great city and a demonstration of the work of the London fire brigade, the Royal air force and the Metropolitan mounted police.

It will be a gorgeous spectacle, no doubt, with historical interest and thrills aplenty. But its chief value will lie in showing to the public the development of modern methods of protecting a large community. Fire-fighting nowadays is very efficient. If only fire-prevention was as thoroughly carried out!

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, May 14.—I spent a recent evening dipping into the sordid side of a great city. With a headquarters man I was following the trail of an auto bandit. The trail began in a street in the Forties where many bandits make their rendezvous.

I met and talked to a "stool pigeon," those mysterious connecting links between the police and the underworld. His face was futile and gray. Somehow he didn't seem to relish his job. He knows that when discovered he will likely be found some day pistoled to death.

On the upper West Side there were visits to several rather elegantly furnished apartments occupied by ladies whose mornins begin at dusk. Without cosmetics they seemed extremely colorless. One I was told had figured in a blackmailing case.

Around the dinner hour you see these women fitting snugly into the opulence of hotel foyers with beautifully masked impatience as though really waiting on someone in particular. They try to be smart and gay with the dark trumpets of oblivion ringing in their ears.

Then to some queer haunts of the East Side. A dim-lit cellar dive, grim and shadowy, that you imagine exists only in cheap fiction and cheaper melodrama. You could feel the flinty resistance to our presence. Even the proprietor scowled.

Next to Third avenue at one of those jinkle-jumble shops known in underworld parlance as "a fence." The proprietor was a bland, pock-marked fellow. He was glib about inconsequentials but tight-lipped when asked questions about members of his guild.

On the jaunt I met a fellow in Chatham square who is a flea trainer. He exhibits a group of them at fairs and street carnivals. He had the appearance of one of those second-rate and seedy operatic tenors. "How did you ever start training fleas?" he was asked. "Ach!" he replied, "that is a secret." And my guide told me he had spent many years in prison and that probably accounted for his profession.

When in New York, Charles M. Schwab goes to a vaudeville playhouse every Monday matinee. He seems particularly to enjoy the wise-cracking monologists and trained animal acts.

Vaudeville might be considered too slight entertainment for some, yet it seems to me it brings as representative audiences as will be found in the so-called legitimate theaters. The only difference is that at the variety show the dress is informal. At the same matinee where I saw Schwab I also saw Michael Arlen, the novelist; Irgin Cobb, the president of one of Chicago's biggest banks, and three well-known society women.

When Fifth avenue's traffic dries up at night some queer characters eddy in from heaven knows where. There are those muffled, stooped men with spiked stocks who poke about in refuse boxes for odd bits of broken china, string, cloth or what not. They wear great overcoats in all seasons and the pockets are bulging with trifles. They are harmless, pathetic and shrink from human contact. Now and then there is a wanderer in shining silk hat and ivory topped cane. He seems to be walking off a dinner with liquid trimmings at the club. Also the lonely private policemen who guard the big mansions that have massive and ponderous grilled entrances. Pigeons flutter down now and then from the cathedral. Fifth avenue appears to be a different street when night falls.

I met a New Yorker recently who has not slept more than three hours a night in five months. At first he lost weight and his appetite. He began to quit thinking about sleep and relaxed. He has now gained in weight, feels in good health and says he has done the best work he has done in years.

DUZ

Washes out all stains!

When this happens—

Put Duz on the job, Mother! Clothes and household things are bound to be splashed and spattered by fruit juices, grease, coffee, or ink—stained by perspiration, blood or even iodine.

Duz washes away every trace of all stains except rust—makes everything spotlessly clean and fresh as new.

Duz washes, whitens and sterilizes in a wonderful new way. Duz makes oxygen suds—millions of bubbles filled with purifying oxygen that saturate every fibre of the fabric and wash out all stains and yellowness along with the dirt.

Washing with Duz is so easy!

Just soak your clothes in warm Duz oxygen suds. No boiling, washboard scrubbing or blueing is necessary. Even the worst stained and grimed spots wash out in Duz suds when squeezed a bit between your hands. And Duz softens and whitens your hands.

Washing with Duz is so easy!

Just soak your clothes in warm Duz oxygen suds. No boiling, washboard scrubbing or blueing is necessary. Even the worst stained and grimed spots wash out in Duz suds when squeezed a bit between your hands. And Duz softens and whitens your hands.

FIRE LOSS HIGH DURING APRIL

Seven Counties Charged With 70 Per Cent of Waste.

Thirty-nine counties shared in West Virginia's April fire loss of $523,7000, a loss greater by $43,878, or 9 per cent, than in the corresponding month of 1924, it is shown by a report by State Fire Marshal Mont L. Topping, made public today.

Seven counties are charged with 70 per cent of the April fire waste. Ohio county led this group with a loss of $98,021, and, following in order, were Mingo, Fayette, Kanawha, Taylor, Cabel and Raleigh counties.

For the 10 months of the fiscal year ending April 30, the loss in West Virginia from 827 fires was $5,514,726, an increase of $1,167,571, or 27 per cent over this period the year before. For the 12 months ending same date the loss from 933 fires was $6,529,242, an increase of $788,731, or 14 per cent, over the 12 months preceding.

Scund value of property attacked by fire in April was $1,214,321 and the insurance $852,381. The fire list for the month included 70 dwellings, 14 barns, 11 stores, 6 garages, 5 manufactories, 3 sheds, 2 hotels, 2 club and lodge rooms, 2 warehouses, 2 shops, school house and office.

Fifty-two of the April fires were of unknown origin, five are attributed to incendiarism and suspicion attaches to three others. Defective flues caused 17 of the fires, electric wires six more, while five were due each to lightning, sparks from chimneys and ignition of woodwork from stoves. Burning rubbish was responsible for four fires and spontaneous combustion for two. The ever-present "smokers' carelessness" caused one fire and the "child with matches" another. Seven of the fires caught from adjoining premises.

Seven deaths and three accidents from fire were reported during the month, the fatalities occurring singly in Cabell, Harrison, Kanawha, Mingo, Monongalia and Ohio counties.

PICK CHARLESTON TO CAPTURE MEET

Charleston high school squad is favored over Triadelphia, Parsons, Pennsboro, Martinsburg and Washington and Irving teams in the eighth annual West Virginia high school track and field meet to be held under the auspices of the West Virginia university in the Morgantown stadium Saturday.

Many, however, do not regard Charleston as a "sure thing" for first honors and claim that if some of the smaller schools run true to form Charleston will be nosed out by one of the leading contenders. Although Charleston is the only school that qualifies a full team of 12 men in last Saturday's sectional meets several others will be represented by from eight to 11 men and will match last year's champs in strength if not in numbers.

NEW INJUNCTION CASE IN COURT

Hearing Is Opened in Federal Court at Wheeling.

WHEELING, W. The continuation was the result of desire of the court to proceed with pending liquor conspiracy cases.

City Men Make Best Farmers Says Chief Of Dominion Bureau

WINNIPEG, Man. May 14.—The cry that city-bred men who take up farming for a living are doomed to failure is an exploded myth, according to Hon. William R. Motherwell, Dominion Minister of Agriculture. In the last ten years practically all of Canada's championships in international competition, he pointed out, have been won by former city men.

"Seager Wheeler, Saskatchewan wheat wizard, five times the holder of the world's championship," said Mr. Motherwell, "was the son of a fisherman and a clerk in a bookstore in England.

"Joseph W. Biglands, who won the oats championship in 1922, was a 'greenhorn' when he took up a homestead near Lacombe, Alta., fifteen years ago.

"Frank Collicutt, of Alberta, whose Hereford herd is restocking many farms all over the continent was a city newsboy.

"It is estimated that more than half of Canada's farmers were reared in the cities. Agricultural colleges, experimental farms, short courses and Government aid have made it possible for the city man, untrained in agriculture, to become a successful farmer."

Are You Like John Smith? All "Dragged Out?"

Every day some grateful man or woman writes us about what World's Catarrh Treatment has done for him or her.

Here's the case of John Smith, living at East Liverpool. His condition is typical of a lot of you. He got up in the morning tired out—his mouth tasted bad and he had to force himself to go to work. After work he was all in—just dragged around. Doctors didn't help him. A dozen remedies failed.

Didn't Know What Ailed Him

He didn't know what was the matter, but when our demonstrator saw him it was evident —was full of catarrh. Catarrh means stagnation. His stomach didn't work right; his digestion didn't give him the elements he needed to be full of pep. The membranes lining his stomach and bowels were full of congestion—just stagnation.

A single bottle of World's Tonic started him improving. Things began to clear up. Now Mr. Smith writes us:

"The change is wonderful. Three bottles of World's Tonic have made me a new man. I get up lively, ready for anything. My day's work doesn't tire me out, and after it I am full of energy and enjoy every minute.'

Why should you drag around half dead when this wonderful treatment may be had? Get started on it today. You can get World's Tonic at Carnahan's, also Brennan's Wellsville and all other first class druggists.

Accept Right Now East Liverpool Offer to Chronic Indigestion Sufferers

One Bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin Ends Gas, Bloating, Near Suffocation, Sourness and Gaspy Breath or Your Money Back.

Astonishing Sales Amaze Druggists.

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with Menthol and other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time.

Why bother with slow actors when one dessertspoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, acidity, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish.

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with chronic indigestion or any stomach misery when this grand elixir that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

But there is more to say about this remarkable remedy—something that will interest thousands of despondent people.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin not only quickly relieves stomach distress, but it also conquers stubborn indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis, the kind that bothers all day and robs you of needed sleep at night.

Furthermore it puts an end to dizziness, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness and despondency which distressing troubles are nearly always caused by chronic stomach disturbance.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin is pleasant to take, has a delightfully refreshing taste and after it has put your stomach in a clean and healthy condition, just notice how much better you look and feel, for besides correcting stomach disorders this supremely good remedy that Jesse D. Holloway and druggists everywhere are glad to guarantee, is a fine tonic that builds you up and makes you work with vim, eat with relish and sleep soundly.

FIRE LOSS HIGH DURING APRIL

Seven Counties Charged With 70 Per Cent of Waste.

Thirty-nine counties shared in West Virginia's April fire loss of $523,7000, a loss greater by $43,878, or 9 per cent, than in the corresponding month of 1924, it is shown by a report by State Fire Marshal Mont L. Topping, made public today.

Seven counties are charged with 70 per cent of the April fire waste. Ohio county led this group with a loss of $98,021, and, following in order, were Mingo, Fayette, Kanawha, Taylor, Cabel and Raleigh counties.

For the 10 months of the fiscal year ending April 30, the loss in West Virginia from 827 fires was $5,514,726, an increase of $1,167,571, or 27 per cent over this period the year before. For the 12 months ending same date the loss from 933 fires was $6,529,242, an increase of $788,731, or 14 per cent, over the 12 months preceding.

Sound value of property attacked by fire in April was $1,214,321 and the insurance $852,381. The fire list for the month included 70 dwellings, 14 barns, 11 stores, 6 garages, 5 manufactories, 3 sheds, 2 hotels, 2 club and lodge rooms, 2 warehouses, 2 shops, school house and office.

Fifty-two of the April fires were of unknown origin, five are attributed to incendiarism and suspicion attaches to three others. Defective flues caused 17 of the fires, electric wires six more, while five were due each to lightning, sparks from chimneys and ignition of woodwork from stoves. Burning rubbish was responsible for four fires and spontaneous combustion for two. The ever-present "smokers' carelessness" caused one fire and the "child with matches" another. Seven of the fires caught from adjoining premises.

Seven deaths and three accidents from fire were reported during the month, the fatalities occurring singly in Cabell, Harrison, Kanawha, Mingo, Monongalia and Ohio counties.

PICK CHARLESTON TO CAPTURE MEET

Charleston high school squad is favored over Triadelphia, Parsons, Pennsboro, Martinsburg and Washington and Irving teams in the eighth annual West Virginia high school track and field meet to be held under the auspices of the West Virginia university in the Morgantown stadium Saturday.

Many, however, do not regard Charleston as a "sure thing" for first honors and claim that if some of the smaller schools run true to form Charleston will be nosed out by one of the leading contenders. Although Charleston is the only school that qualifies a full team of 12 men in last Saturday's sectional meets several others will be represented by from eight to 11 men and will match last year's champs in strength if not in numbers.

NEW INJUNCTION CASE IN COURT

Hearing Is Opened in Federal Court at Wheeling.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 14.—After hearing initial statements of counsel for officers and members of the United Mine Workers of America today, contending service was illegal upon defendants in application of the West Virginia - Pittsburgh Coal company for a new strike injunction of a drastic nature, Judge Baker this morning continued proceedings until this afternoon. The continuation was the result of desire of the court to proceed with pending liquor conspiracy cases.

The miners' attack upon service in the application for the new injunction is that it was illegal, because they were in court answering to bond upon another contempt proceedings, still pending.

City Men Make Best Farmers Says Chief Of Dominion Bureau

WINNIPEG, Man. May 14.—The cry that city-bred men who take up farming for a living are doomed to failure is an exploded myth, according to Hon. William R. Motherwell, Dominion Minister of Agriculture. In the last ten years practically all of Canada's championships in international competition, he pointed out, have been won by former city men.

"Seager Wheeler, Saskatchewan wheat wizard, five times the holder of the world's championship," said Mr. Motherwell, "was the son of a fisherman and a clerk in a bookstore in England.

"Joseph W. Biglands, who won the oats championship in 1922, was a 'greenhorn' when he took up a homestead near Lacombe, Alta., fifteen years ago.

"Frank Collicutt, of Alberta, whose Hereford herd is restocking many farms all over the continent was a city newsboy.

"It is estimated that more than half of Canada's farmers were reared in the cities. Agricultural colleges, experimental farms, short courses and Government aid have made it possible for the city man, untrained in agriculture, to become a successful farmer."

Are You Like John Smith? All "Dragged Out?"

Every day some grateful man or woman writes us about what World's Catarrh Treatment has done for him or her.

Here's the case of John Smith, living at East Liverpool. His condition is typical of a lot of you. He got up in the morning tired out—his mouth tasted bad and he had to force himself to go to work. After work he was all in—just dragged around. Doctors didn't help him. A dozen remedies failed.

Didn't Know What Ailed Him

He didn't know what was the matter, but when our demonstrator saw him it was evident —was full of catarrh. Catarrh means stagnation. His digestion didn't give him the elements he needed to be full of pep. The membranes lining his stomach and bowels were full of congestion—just stagnation.

A single bottle of World's Tonic started him improving. Things began to clear up. Now Mr. Smith writes us:

"The change is wonderful. Three bottles of World's Tonic have made me a new man. I get up lively, ready for anything. My day's work doesn't tire me out, and after it I am full of energy and enjoy every minute.'

Why should you drag around half dead when this wonderful treatment may be had? Get started on it today. You can get World's Tonic at Carnahan's, also Brennan's Wellsville and all other first class druggists.

ATHENS, May—The Athens Electric company has been given a contract for lighting the streets and homes of this city for the next six years. FARM STOCK

HOGS ON LESS CORN INCREASES PROFITS

If there is one universal principle of swine production it is that "You can't make money in hogs without grass." This means, of course, pasture for summer and roughage of some kind during the winter. Raising hogs on less corn—which means feeding them supplements not so costly—is a subject concerning many farmers.

Results of experiments conducted by the animal husbandry department at South Dakota State college indicate that the introduction of alfalfa hay into the ration for hogs materially reduces the amount of corn required to produce a given amount of pork. In two trials conducted recently, one lot of pigs was fed only corn and tankage. Another lot was fed corn, tankage, linseed meal, and chopped alfalfa hay. Where it required 367 pounds of corn and 43 pounds of tankage to produce 100 pounds of gain in the first lot, it required 325 pounds of corn, 25 pounds of tankage, 12.5 pounds of linseed meal, and 12.5 pounds of alfalfa hay in the second lot.

Several experiment stations recommend chopped alfalfa hay only for use in a hog ration. To find out if whole alfalfa hay could not be substituted, a test was run at the South Dakota college farm. Three lots of hogs were fed chopped hay, while three other lots received good alfalfa hay in a rack. The results to date indicate that the pigs made approximately as good gains where the uncut hay was fed as when the hay was chopped. Further trials will be conducted along this line before final recommendations can be made.

"If our present results are borne out in further trials, it will be of great importance to the farmers of South Dakota," A. H. Kuhlman of the animal husbandry department points out. "If choice alfalfa hay fed in racks will produce gains approximately as good as those obtained in feeding chopped hay, many farmers in this state will be in a position to increase their returns from feeding pigs in the winter months. The addition of alfalfa hay has increased the daily gains in every instance; in fact, the average gains made by the pigs on trial compare very well with those made by pigs on forage during the summer."

Pasture Rotation Keeps Lamb Parasites Checked

The belief of progressive sheepmen that pasture rotation reduces the ravages of parasites among sheep and lambs received a scientific test last year at the Beltsville (Md.) farm operated by the United States Department of Agriculture. According to the report of the chief of the bureau of animal industry, just issued, that belief is correct. The goverment investigators found that a systematic rotation of forage-crop pastures enables lambs to reach market weight without visible effects of parasitic infestation.

The system, though keeping parasites in check, is not an absolutely sure method. While the frequent changes of pasture proved beneficial, they were not entirely adequate in the control of parasites of sheep carried throughout the year. Stomach worms are among the most serious pests attacking farm flocks and for their complete suppression some method of treatment such as dosing with dilute copper-sulphate solution is desirable. Details of the method are obtainable without cost from the bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C.

Pure Bred Pig Rivals Mythical Goose Story

The goose that is alleged to have laid a golden egg every day has a close rival in present-day pure bred live stock, judging from a report from a pig-club boy in South Carolina. "Five years ago last March," he states in a letter to the United States Department of Agriculture, "I joined a pig club that our county agent organized in this county. I had a pure bred pig then eight weeks old. Since that time she has farrowed about 100 pigs. She paid for my clothes three years in high school and gave me spending money also. I am now in my second year in college and she is still doing the same."

The owner of this pig is now participating in the "Better-Sire Better-Stock" campaign for the improvement of domestic animals and urges that the advantages of well-bred stock be kept constantly before the public.

Silage for Sheep

To feed breeding ewes just silage as practically the only feed would not be likely to give good results, but the ration for sheep can just as well be comprised partly of silage to very good advantage, and without injurious results of any kind. Feed not more than three to five pounds of corn silage per ewe per day. They will need some hay along with this and possibly during the later part of the winter they should have a little grain also.

new one. Oklahoma mules refuse to abide in the hills of Arkansas. At least, Andy Parsons, sheriff of Okfuske county, vouchsafes for the story.

Several days ago George Copeland a farmer who lives near Marshall, Ark., bought a span of mules from an Oklahoma farmer. When he let the mules into the pasture, he says, they took one look at the rocky soil and then jumped the fence. When last seen they were ambling down the road toward the Oklahoma line. Copeland asks Parsons to locate and hold the animals until he can sell them to an Oklahoma farmer.

FARM STOCK

HOGS ON LESS CORN INCREASES PROFITS

If there is one universal principle of swine production it is that "You can't make money in hogs without grass." This means, of course, pasture for summer and roughage of some kind during the winter. Raising hogs on less corn—which means feeding them supplements not so costly—is a subject concerning many farmers.

Results of experiments conducted by the animal husbandry department at South Dakota State college indicate that the introduction of alfalfa hay into the ration for hogs materially reduces the amount of corn required to produce a given amount of pork. In two trials conducted recently, one lot of pigs was fed only corn and tankage. Another lot was fed corn, tankage, linseed meal, and chopped alfalfa hay. Where it required 367 pounds of corn and 43 pounds of tankage to produce 100 pounds of gain in the first lot, it required 325 pounds of corn, 25 pounds of tankage, 12.5 pounds of linseed meal, and 12.5 pounds of alfalfa hay in the second lot.

Several experiment stations recommend chopped alfalfa hay only for use in a hog ration. To find out if whole alfalfa hay could not be substituted, a test was run at the South Dakota college farm. Three lots of hogs were fed chopped hay, while three other lots received good alfalfa hay in a rack. The results to date indicate that the pigs made approximately as good gains where the uncut hay was fed as when the hay was chopped. Further trials will be conducted along this line before final recommendations can be made.

"If our present results are borne out in further trials, it will be of great importance to the farmers of South Dakota," A. H. Kuhlman of the animal husbandry department points out. "If choice alfalfa hay fed in racks will produce gains approximately as good as those obtained in feeding chopped hay, many farmers in this state will be in a position to increase their returns from feeding pigs in the winter months. The addition of alfalfa hay has increased the daily gains in every instance; in fact, the average gains made by the pigs on trial compare very well with those made by pigs on forage during the summer."

Pasture Rotation Keeps Lamb Parasites Checked

The belief of progressive sheepmen that pasture rotation reduces the ravages of parasites among sheep and lambs received a scientific test last year at the Beltsville (Md.) farm operated by the United States Department of Agriculture. According to the report of the chief of the bureau of animal industry, just issued, that belief is correct. The goverment investigators found that a systematic rotation of forage-crop pastures enables lambs to reach market weight without visible effects of parasitic infestation.

The system, though keeping parasites in check, is not an absolutely sure method. While the frequent changes of pasture proved beneficial, they were not entirely adequate in the control of parasites of sheep carried throughout the year. Stomach worms are among the most serious pests attacking farm flocks and for their complete suppression some method of treatment such as dosing with dilute copper-sulphate solution is desirable. Details of the method are obtainable without cost from the bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C.

A WORD FOR BEGINNERS.

The best way to solve a cross-word puzzle is to run quickly over the list of horizontal and vertical synonyms and compare them to the spaces in the puzzle extending crosswise or downward from the number of the synonym. Some word which will just fit in the number of space available will quickly occur to you in some instances, giving you a foundation from which to solve the more difficult words. The words must interlock perfectly.

URBANA PASTOR USES ADS TO BOOST CHURCH

Publicity Stunt is "Delivering Goods," He Says.

NOVEL METHODS

Apply Business Sense to Religion, is His Advice.

CLEVELAND, O., New ideas on the application of religion and the perking up of church attendance are coming from at least three towns and cities in Ohio.

First, it was a young Dayton minister who made the declaration that the theologists no longer are the lions of popular thinking and importance and that business speaks an influential language.

Then there was the Cincinnati minister who observed that in this day and age of competition the church, to be attended, must herald its Sunday attractions just as widely as the Sunday movie managers publish theirs.

Clears Debts

The most recent idea is the publicity stunt of Rev. Ralph G. Carson, Baptist preacher, at Urbana. He not only manitains but has proved that newspaper advertising and "delivering the goods" will bring any church to the front.

Rev. Carson has told how he had just cleared his church of debt and how for the first time in years the congregation is beginning to overflow the building.

"It's just plain business sense applied to religion," he said.

Rev. Carson's secret lies in his going in for publicity with just as much force and gusto as do movie stars or real estate companies. His first move in his drive for attendance was to buy space on the movie pages of the local newspapers.

Advertises Church

His church advertisements were interspersed with movie "ads," and some of his layouts read like the following:

"Fashions in fig leaves—Modesty: What garb does it wear?"

"Hear Rev. Carson (Sunday night) tell why Dorothy Ellingson killed her mother."

"Gloria Swanson: Did she marry for love or money?"

Cuts of movie stars touched up his ads in "teaser" fashion.

Soon the young people turned out because of their direct interest in what he was talking about, and the older ones went to see "if it could be done."

It's for joint ailments only—that is why you are advised to use it for sore, painful, inflamed, rheumatic joints.

Joint-Ease limbers up the joints—is clean and penetrating and quick results are assured—Sixty cents a tube at Jesse D. Holloway and Mathews' Medicine Store, and druggists everywhere.

NOW DOES ALL HER WORK

Has No Backache, No Bad Feelings Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Drove Her Illness Away

Milwaukee, Wisconsin.—"I was in a badly run-down condition and I would get weak spells and terrible headaches. I felt so badly last year that I could not do any housecleaning. The minute I would lift or stoop it seemed as if I was going to fall to pieces. I told a neighbor how I felt and she said that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was surely the right thing for me. I took four bottles then and in the fall of the year I took three. I had been treated by a doctor but he gave me an iron tonic and that did not help me. It seemed that the tonic did not have in it what the Vegetable Compound did. That gave me the strength and ambition I needed and I have gained in weight. This year before I started to clean house I got four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and am taking it right along. I tell all my friends about it and how much good it does me. They can notice it because I have gained in weight. I weigh 118 now and do all my work myself again."—Mrs. Emil O. Brandenburg, 651 37th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Here's the Latest--Cod Liver Oil in Tasteless Tablets

Greatest Flesh Builder For Skinny, Weak, Run-Down People--Full of Vitamines

No more will weak, thin, unfortunate children cry in protest when the nasty, fishy-tasting, horrible-smelling cod liver oil is brought out.

Medical science progresses rapidly, and now you can get at your druggist's real, genuine cod liver oil in sugar-coated tablets that young and old can take with ease and pleasure.

Even the run-down and skinny grown-ups, who ought to take cod liver oil, because it really is the greatest vitamine food and builder of healthy flesh in the world, will feel extremely joyful when they read this welcome news.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only of late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of cough syrup.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, and if you don't gain 5 pounds in 30 days just get your money back.

One woman gained fifteen pounds in five weeks, according to her own doctor—another ten pounds in three weeks. A very sickly child, aged nine, twelve pounds in seven months, and now plays with other children and has a good appetite.

Just ask for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Carnahan's and Mathews' Medicine Store or any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only 60 cents for 60 tablets—and don't forget that they are wonder workers for feeble old folks.

Get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and beware of imitations.

'CODE OF WEST' AT CERAMIC

Zane Grey's Stirring Novel Depicted on Screen.

"Code of the West," Paramount's film version of Zane Grey's stirring novel of the same name, which opens tonight at the Ceramic theatre, shows you what happens when a flapper from the wide open places of the east meets a cowboy from the great open spaces of the west.

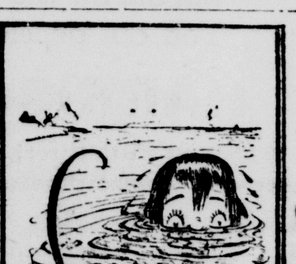

The resultant romance leads to some very interesting situations, develops some fast and furious action, flavored with considerable comedy, and builds to as melodramatic a climax as has ever been flashed upon the screen.

The theme of the story brings out the striking contrast in the viewpoints of the east and the west. The plot concerns Georgie May Stockwell, a typical New York flapper, who goes to Arizona for her health and vamps all the cowboys at the Thurman ranch. In particular, she brings to bear all her feminine charms on Cal Thurman, the shy, awkward, younger son of the family, with the result that he falls desperately in love with her and finally proposes.

From that point the action takes an unexpected turn, for Georgie, with characteristic feminine perversity, turns him down, and Cal, with equally characteristic western directness, forces her, at the point of a gun, to marry him. The subsequent events involve a strange honeymoon in a lonely cabin which is interrupted by a raging forest fire that solves the love tangle in thrilling and dramatic fashion.

Owen Moore, as the young cowboy who turns caveman, gives a very creditable performance; and Constance Bennett, as the flirtatious flapper, has opportunities out of the ordinary for splendid acting and makes the most of them. Others who deserve honorable mention include Mabel Ballin, Charles Ogle and David Butler.

"Code of the West" has been very carefully adapted to the screen by Lucien Hubbard, and the production as a whole is one of which William K. Howard, who directed it, has every reason to feel proud.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Here's the Latest--Cod Liver Oil in Tasteless Tablets

Greatest Flesh Builder For Skinny, Weak, Run-Down People--Full of Vitamines

No more will weak, thin, unfortunate children cry in protest when the nasty, fishy-tasting, horrible-smelling cod liver oil is brought out.

Medical science progresses rapidly, and now you can get at your druggist's real, genuine cod liver oil in sugar-coated tablets that young and old can take with ease and pleasure.

Even the run-down and skinny grown-ups, who ought to take cod liver oil, because it really is the greatest vitamine food and builder of healthy flesh in the world, will feel extremely joyful when they read this welcome news.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only of late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of cough syrup.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, and if you don't gain 5 pounds in 30 days just get your money back.

One woman gained fifteen pounds in five weeks, according to her own doctor—another ten pounds in three weeks. A very sickly child, aged nine, twelve pounds in seven months, and now plays with other children and has a good appetite.

Just ask for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Carnahan's and Mathews' Medicine Store or any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only 60 cents for 60 tablets—and don't forget that they are wonder workers for feeble old folks.

Englishmen Turn to Mexican Drinks; Tire Of Old Beverages

LONDON, May — While thirsty Americans strive to enjoy "bootleg hooch," the jaded palates of England, tiring of whisky, beer and wines, are seeking new beverages.

An enterprising representative of one of the leading hotel syndicates has just returned from Mexico and is to be followed shortly by large consignments of tequilla and pulque, Mexico's favorite beverages.

Tequilla may be a good drink for Mexicans, but what its effects will be upon staid and dignified Englishmen are something to contemplate.

"I know they're good ...so I buy 'em by the box."

Premier Mussolini Is Great Administrator, Ex-Envoy Says

Richard Washburn Child Tells of Rise of Italian Premier, Who Once Slept on Pier.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May.—Patience, good luck, health, simplicity and faith in one's fellow men are the essentials of leadership, according to Richard Washburn Child, noted author, lecturer and one-time Ambassador to Italy, during a recent visit here.

Child considers health one of the greatest factors leading to greatness. He says without good health the road to the pinnacle of success is long and treacherous.

"The breaking down of health," he observes, "usually occurs at the very time when the step to greatness should be made. Roosevelt knew this. Giolitti, who, at eighty-four, takes a major part in Italian politics, keeps a rigorous schedule of personal habits, and as a result remains active.

vironment of war master him; he mastered it. I've seen him at two international conferences when there were great crises, observing his regular personal program. One afternoon at the Genoa conference, when he faced defeat at home and humiliation abroad, and I suppose he had gone off to brood, I found him asleep in a wicker chair under an oleander tree on the banks of the Ligurian river."

"Promote Cal."

Child says President Coolidge has the ability to forget his worries, even when driven at the hardest. He says, "I talked with the President once about the strain of the Presidency. He showed me a piece of paper, which he had received upon assuming the Presidency. It was from the South, in an illiterate hand, and said: 'Dear Cal, I congratulate you and hope you will work hard, so you will be promoted.'"

In discussing the simplicity phase of his formula for greatness Child remarked, "It plays a great part between greatness and near-greatness. In an age that is not supposed to be romantic, Mussolini is a romantic figure. I knew him before he came into power. At Lausanne he called me into his room and pointed out a stone pier on the lake. 'The last time I slept in Lausanne I slept on that pier.' A day or two after the march of the Fascisti on Rome he said to me, 'I'm not as excited as the press of the world is. I know of no man who wants my job.'"

In speaking of the present Italian government, and of the Fascisti in particular, Child declared, "It is hard to conceive of a more perverted idea of the Revolution in Italy than is found in the United States. There was a flabby government, which had worn out. The old multi-party government was producing new ministries every little while. The citizenship became cynical and despaired of having any government at all; but the Fascisti was gaining strength. In the Spring of 1922 I telegraphed the President that it was perfectly clear there would be some sort of dictatorship established in Italy.

Mussolini Playful.

"I was comissioned by the State department to find the man. I asked an Italian press correspondent to bring Mussolini to my room. Mussolini was reluctant, and suspicious of me.

"We got along badly until my two little daughters came into the room. In three or four minutes he was under the piano, barking and growling for them lieke a caged bear. That broke the ice. At that time he had no idea of the march on Rome, but spoke of some sort of coalition government.

"The last time I saw Mussolini I inquired what he was doing to make himself effective. This man who was called political evangelist by some and demagogue and brute by others, but turned out to be a great administrator, replied that every night he spent a half hour thinking over what had been done and a second half hour thinking of what had to be done. I said, 'What yardstick do you apply?' and he answered, 'I always say to myself simply, simplify, simplify!'"

Child says that at the end of the Lausanne conference Lord Curzon, of England, and the Turkish representative, Ismet Pasha, were unable to meet except in the rooms of the American Embassy, for they were like two strange bulldogs.

ELYRIA, May—The Oberlin graduate school of theology received a $20,000 gift, to be known as the "Monroe Scholarship," which will provide a $1,000 a year graduate scholarship.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 2

Tea Production Today

If the Chinese, who first discovered tea, had realized the possibilities of the trade and had studied the nature and requirements of the plant, China might still be the largest tea producing country. Centuries of neglect, however, stunted the growth and caused the quality to deteriorate. In the mountains of Ceylon and India, tea was found to flourish. Scientific methods of cultivation and manufacture were introduced with remarkable results. Now the finest tea grown in the world and by far the largest quantity comes from these countries. "SALADA" is mainly blended from flavory India and Ceylon teas.

Englishmen Turn to Mexican Drinks; Tire Of Old Beverages

LONDON, May — While thirsty Americans strive to enjoy "bootleg booch," the jaded palates of England, tiring of whisky, beer and wines, are seeking new beverages.

An enterprising representative of one of the leading hotel syndicates has just returned from Mexico and is to be followed shortly by large consignments of tequilla and pulque, Mexico's favorite beverages.

Tequilla may be a good drink for Mexicans, but what its effects will be upon staid and dignified Englishmen are something to contemplate.

Premier Mussolini Is Great Administrator, Ex-Envoy Says

Richard Washburn Child Tells of Rise of Italian Premier, Who Once Slept on Pier.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May.—Patience, good luck, health, simplicity and faith in one's fellow men are the essentials of leadership, according to Richard Washburn Child, noted author, lecturer and one-time Ambassador to Italy, during a recent visit here.

Child considers health one of the greatest factors leading to greatness. He says without good health the road to the pinnacle of success is long and treacherous.

"The breaking down of health," he observes, "usually occurs at the very time when the step to greatness should be made. Roosevelt knew this. Giolitti, who, at eighty-four, takes a major part in Italian politics, keeps a rigorous schedule of personal habits, and as a result remains active.

vironment of war master him; he mastered it. I've seen him at two international conferences when there were great crises, observing his regular personal program. One afternoon at the Genoa conference, when he faced defeat at home and humiliation abroad, and I suppose he had gone off to brood, I found him asleep in a wicker chair under an oleander tree on the banks of the Ligurian river."

"Promote Cal."

Child says President Coolidge has the ability to forget his worries, even when driven at the hardest. He says, "I talked with the President once about the strain of the Presidency. He showed me a piece of paper, which he had received upon assuming the Presidency. It was from the South, in an illiterate hand, and said: 'Dear Cal, I congratulate you and hope you will work hard, so you will be promoted."

In discussing the simplicity phase of his formula for greatness Child remarked, "It plays a great part between greatness and near-greatness. In an age that is not supposed to be romantic, Mussolini is a romantic figure. I knew him before he came into power. At Lausanne he called me into his room and pointed out a stone pier on the lake. 'The last time I slept in Lausanne I slept on that pier.' A day or two after the march of the Fascisti on Rome he said to me, 'I'm not as excited as the press of the world is. I know of no man who wants my job."'

In speaking of the present Italian government, and of the Fascisti in particular, Child declared, "It is hard to conceive of a more perverted idea of the Revolution in Italy than is found in the United States. There was a flabby government, which had worn out. The old multi-party government was producing new ministries every little while. The citizenship became cynical and despaired of having any government at all; but the Fascisti was gaining strength. In the Spring of 1922 I telegraphed the President that it was perfectly clear there would be some sort of dictatorship established in Italy.

Mussolini Playful.

"I was comissioned by the State department to find the man. I asked an Italian press correspondent to bring Mussolini to my room. Mussolini was reluctant, and suspicious of me.

"We got along badly until my two little daughters came into the room. In three or four minutes he was under the piano, barking and growling for them lieke a caged bear. That broke the ice. At that time he had no idea of the march on Rome, but spoke of some sort of coalition government.

"The last time I saw Mussolini I inquired what he was doing to make himself effective. This man who was called political evangelist by some and demagogue and brute by others, but turned out to be a great administrator, replied that every night he spent a half hour thinking over what had been done and a second half hour thinking of what had to be done. I said, 'What yardstick do you apply?' and he answered, 'I always say to myself simply, simplify, simplify!"'

Child says that at the end of the Lausanne conference Lord Curzon, of England, and the Turkish representative, Ismet Pasha, were unable to meet except in the rooms of the American Embassy, for they were like two strange bulldogs.

ELYRIA, May—The Oberlin graduate school of theology received a $20,000 gift, to be known as the "Monroe Scholarship," which will provide a $1,000 a year graduate scholarship.

DERBY JAM IS NEAR HEIGHT

Louisville's Hotels and Rooming Houses Crowded.

By Thomas Temple Hoyne.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—Today the stream of visitors coming to this city for the fifty first running of the Kentucky Derby next Saturday began to rise to the flood stage it will reach by tomorrow night.

Every hotel in the city is already filled to capacity. Guests who took rooms with the understanding that they would give them up today so that others who had already reserved them for the derby period might move in, are seeking accommodations in private houses.

And everybody is now at work trying to dope out the winner of the big race. The consensus is that picking it this year is going to be a tough job.

In trying to dope out the winners of horse races man engages in the most popular form of constant human endeavor—the effort to make certainty out of what, because of its nature, must forever remain uncertainty.

Below, however, is a list of 20 probably Derby starters with their weights, owners and jockeys. And the winner is undoubtedly here, so if anyone cares to pick him—

Quatrain, 126 lbs.; F. Johnson, owner; G. Bruening, jockey.

Kentucky Cardinal, 126 lbs.; G. F. Croissant, owner; M. Garner, jockey.

Chantey, 126 lbs.; Mrs. Payne Whitney, owner; I. Parke, jockey.

Backbone, 126 lbs.; H. P. Whitney, owner; M. McAtee, jockey.

Captain Hal, 126 lbs.; A. A. Kaiser, owner; J. Jeupel, jockey.

Singlefoot, 126 lbs.; J. E. Griffith, owner; A. Johnson, jockey.

Almadel, 126 lbs.; H. P. Headley, owner; L. McDermott, jockey.

Step Along, 126 lbs.; F. M. Grabner, owner; E. Pool, jockey.

Baseball has already begun to supply the dyed-in-the-wool fans with freak happenings to chew over. The other two, however, collected singles and the Braves grabbed two runs before the inning was ended.

Grimes snapped a throw to second to catch Welch off the bag and the ball went wild, Welch going to third. Grimes then uncorked another wild pitch and Welch scored. Then Burleigh fanned Padgett to end the inning.

Walsh Asserts Smoky City Fans Clamor for Somebody's Head, Preferably That of Dreyfuss, Rather Than Bill McKechnie.

By Davis J. Walsh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 14.—Pittsburg fans, ever a mercurial lot, have turned their backs on the Pirates because of the Club's inept performances and today are calling loudly for somebody's head, preferably that of Barney Dreyfuss. That worthy, rather than Bill McKechnie, has been blamed for the mid-winter deal, whereby the Pirates gave up fifty percent of an all-star infield and received in return one hundred percent of jolly old Barnum.

The transaction took away "Rabbit" Maranville, the best second baseman in the league last year; Charley Grimm, a gifted first baseman and Wilbur Cooper, until recently one of baseball's leading left handers. It brought here Al Niehaus, a minor leaguer who apparently can neither hit nor field; Grantham, another infielder who got away to a standing start and Aldridge, a right hand pitcher who held out so long that he has been of no use to the club to date.

The thing has begun to look as sour as last week's milk, and before the team ventured into the east, local fans were staying away from Forbes Field in droves. The writer took the trouble to inquire into the local situation today and found apathy rampant, a ten dollar word meaning without restraint.

The populace, it seems, does not mean to rise to another Pirate failure. It saw the Pirates of 1921, all of 7½ games in the lead in September, yet fail to win the pennant. It saw the 1922, 1923 and 1924 clubs apparently headed for the flag, only to bog down at critical moments.

Now it finds itself in the position of the man who investigated the cigar clipper with the tip of an inquisitive finger. It is beginning to lose confidence in the situation. Instead of being a contender from the drop of the derby, as indicated by advance calculations, the Pirates first were knocked off by everybody in the west and then went east to Philadelphia where they fared none too well, if at all.

This record has been taken locally as sufficient proof that the club has lost its collective shirt in the much-discussed club deal. In fact, the only man who seems to think otherwise is Barney Dreyfuss. He stoutly maintains that time will justify all and, meantime, the club has gone into reverse with great alacrity.

Grantham came here with a reputation of being an indifferent fielder but a good hitter and base runner. In the last named department he has been a disappointment because no one has yet invented a system of successful base running in the dugout. Grantham hasn't hit the size of his neck band and has been out of the line-up for most part.

But with Neihaus going so poorly, something had to be done; so the chances are good that Grantham will be in there from day to day, regardless of his light hitting.

Meanwhile Pittsburgh fans are thinking very rugged thoughts about Maranville and Grimm.

Tagging The Bases

The ancient soup bone of Artie Nehf held the Reds to only one hit and the Giants won, 3 to 0. The champions are now four and one half games in front.

Ed. Brown did a Frank Merriwell with the bases full and the ensuing four runs enabled the Dodgers to outlast the Cardinals.

The Pirates came out of their trance and whipped the Braves, 5 to 4, due to good pitching by Yde and Kremer. Boston had won five straight.

The amazing Phillies slugged their way to a 6 to 5 victory over the Cubs, whose three homers failed to stem the tide.

"No hit" Charley Robertson whitewashed the Yanks, limiting them to three hingles and six fouls. Only two New York players reached second and they died of lonesomeness. Score: Chicago, 4, Yankees, 0.

The debut of Pitcher Ray Francis with the Red Sox was an unqualified success—for Cleveland. The Indians won, 6 to 4, scoring five runs in the first inning and driving Francis from the mound.

The Athletics maintained their merry race, bowling over the Tigers by a score of 3 to 1.

Washington massacred the Browns, 8 to 1, but Sisler obliged the St. Louis fans by hitting safely in his twenty-eighth consecutive game.

Kemp of McKeesport, Pa., was elected manager of the Bethany basketball team for the 1926 season. NEW YORK, May 14.—Art Nehf shut out the Cincinnati Reds with one hit, the Giants winning the opening game of the series by 3 to 0. The only hit was a single by Rube Bressler in the second inning.

TWO CONTESTS FOR HIGH NINE

New Cumberland and Newell on Week's Card.

Newell and New Cumberland high school nines will be the next baseball opponents for the East Liverpool Scholastics, the locals being scheduled to play the Newell nine Friday at Patterson Field and the New Cumberland tossers Saturday at New Cumberland.

The Scholastics already have one victory to their credit over the Newell aggregation and feel confident they can make it two in the coming contest.

They will have to play heads-up baseball in New Cumberland, however, for the Hancock county seaters this year have just as good a club as in previous seasons.

Athletics Cop Another.

DETROIT, May 14. — Detroit garnered but three hits off the offerings of Baumgartner, Groves and Harriss, and the Philadelphia Athletics won by a score of 3 to 1.

Baumgartner was removed from the batting order in favor of a pinch hitter in the seventh inning, Groves taking the mound to be relieved in the eighth by Harriss, who held the Tigers without a hit for the rest of the game.

EXCHANGE PROFESSORSHIP IDEA IS CARRIED TO FOOTBALL FIELD

FIELDING H. YOST

For several years now American and foreign colleges have been exchanging professors for various periods in the belief that such exchanges broaden the scope of the colleges and give the men involved new thoughts on their work. This idea has now invaded the athletic angle of collegiate activities. Fielding H. "Hurry up" Yost, famous coach of the University of Michigan eleven, and Harvey Emery, one of his aides, have just returned to Ann Arbor after directing the spring activities of the Princeton football squad. And William W. "Bill" Roper, famous Princeton mentor, with two of his aides, Al Wittmer and Nat Poe, are now working with the Wolverine candidates.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Charley Robertson let New York down with three hits, while Chicago hit opportunely behind Hoyt's wildness and shut out the Yankees, 4 to 0.

McKechnie's Tossers Halt Boston, 5 to 4

BOSTON, May 14.—Pittsburgh halted Boston's winning streak which had reached five games, by taking the first game of the series here, 5 to 4. Yde and then Kramer were given sensational support, especially by Traynor, Moore and Cuyler. Genewich was hit hard.

Singles by Cuyler and Traynor in the seventh were big factors in what proved the winning runs. The Braves did not have a man left on base.

Trbe Hits Francis And Defeat Red Sox

CLEVELAND, May 14.—The Indians drove Ray Francis, recently obtained by Boston from New York, from the box in the first inning here this afternoon, scoring five runs, which helped to defeat the Red Sox, 6 to 4.

Uhle pitched well in the pinches except in the eighth, when he walked two batters and hit another. Boone and Speaker made home runs, Speaker's coming with a man on base in the first inning.

JACK POSTPONES JAUNT TO PARIS

LONDON, May 14.—Because of his wife's illness, Jack Dempsey, American heavyweight champion, postponed his scheduled departure from England today for Paris.

He said his wife was "still ill from sea sickness and doctors have ordered her to take a complete rest for 48 hours."

Mrs. Dempsey was Estelle Taylor, a film star.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14. — Philadelphia came from behind in the eighth inning and by scoring two runs defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 5, and gave them their sixth straight loss.

Hartnett's ninth home run of the season and circuit blows by Griffith and Friberg, the former pair in the sixth inning, gave the visitors a margin of one run until the flare-up in the eighth, that drove Keen to the showers.

Senators Lick Browns.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—Mogradge was in form and the Washington Senators defeated the St. Louis Browns 8 to 1, in the second game of the series. George Sisler, Brown playing manager, singled in the ninth for his fifth hit of the season and thus brought to twenty-eight his string of consecutive hitting games.

Brown's Homer Won.

BROOKLYN, May 14. — Eddie Brown's home run with the bases filled in the seventh inning proved to be the blow that gave Brooklyn a 9 to 8 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Robins went into the seventh inning trailing the Cards by five runs, three of which were made up before Brown's circuit drive.

In the 1 ton and 1½ ton fields combined, Graham Brothers ranked second.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—Today the stream of visitors coming to this city for the fifty first running of the Kentucky Derby next Saturday began to rise to the flood stage it will reach by tomorrow night.

Every hotel in the city is already filled to capacity. Guests who took rooms with the understanding that they would give them up today so that others who had already reserved them for the derby period might move in, are seeking accommodations in private houses.

And everybody is now at work trying to dope out the winner of the big race. The consensus is that picking it this year is going to be a tough job.

This record has been taken locally as sufficient proof that the club has lost its collective shirt in the much-discussed club deal. In fact, the only man who seems to think otherwise is Barney Dreyfuss. He stoutly maintains that time will justify all and, meantime, the club has gone into reverse with great alacrity.

Grantham came here with a reputation of being an indifferent fielder but a good hitter and base runner. In the last named department he has been a disappointment because no one has yet invented a system of successful base running in the dugout. Grantham hasn't hit the size of his neck band and has been out of the line-up for most part.

But with Neihaus going so poorly, something had to be done; so the chances are good that Grantham will be in there from day to day, regardless of his light hitting.

Meanwhile Pittsburgh fans are thinking very rugged thoughts about Maranville and Grimm.

Tagging The Bases

The ancient soup bone of Artie Nehf held the Reds to only one hit and the Giants won, 3 to 0. The champions are now four and one half games in front.

Ed. Brown did a Frank Merriwell with the bases full and the ensuing four runs enabled the Dodgers to outlast the Cardinals.

The Pirates came out of their trance and whipped the Braves, 5 to 4, due to good pitching by Yde and Kremer. Boston had won five straight.

The amazing Phillies slugged their way to a 6 to 5 victory over the Cubs, whose three homers failed to stem the tide.

"No hit" Charley Robertson whitewashed the Yanks, limiting them to three bingles and six fouls. Only two New York players reached second and they died of lonesomeness. Score: Chicago, 4, Yankees, 0.

The debut of Pitcher Ray Francis with the Red Sox was an unqualified success—for Cleveland. The Indians won, 6 to 4, scoring five runs in the first inning and driving Francis from the mound.

The Athletics maintained their merry race, bowling over the Tigers by a score of 3 to 1.

Washington massacred the Browns, 8 to 1, but Sisler obliged the St. Louis fans by hitting safely in his twenty-eighth consecutive game.

Kemp of McKeesport, Pa., was elected manager of the Bethany basketball team for the 1926 season. NEW YORK, May 14.—Art Nehf shut out the Cincinnati Reds with one hit, the Giants winning the opening game of the series by 3 to 0. The only hit was a single by Rube Bressler in the second inning.

Nehf also distinguished himself with five assists.

George Kelly led the scoring for the Giants with a triple and a double which netted two runs.

TWO CONTESTS FOR HIGH NINE

New Cumberland and Newell on Week's Card.

Newell and New Cumberland high school nines will be the next baseball opponents for the East Liverpool Scholastics, the locals being scheduled to play the Newell nine Friday at Patterson Field and the New Cumberland tossers Saturday at New Cumberland.

The Scholastics already have one victory to their credit over the Newell aggregation and feel confident they can make it two in the coming contest.

They will have to play heads-up baseball in New Cumberland, however, for the Hancock county seaters this year have just as good a club as in previous seasons.

EXCHANGE PROFESSORSHIP IDEA IS CARRIED TO FOOTBALL FIELD

FIELDING H. YOST

For several years now American and foreign colleges have been exchanging professors for various periods in the belief that such exchanges broaden the scope of the colleges and give the men involved new thoughts on their work. This idea has now invaded the athletic angle of collegiate activities. Fielding H. "Hurry up" Yost, famous coach of the University of Michigan eleven, and Harvey Emery, one of his aides, have just returned to Ann Arbor after directing the spring activities of the Princeton football squad. And William W. "Bill" Roper, famous Princeton mentor, with two of his aides, Al Wittmer and Nat Poe, are now working with the Wolverine candidates.

WILLIAM ROPER

Sox Blank Yankees.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Charley Robertson let New York down with three hits, while Chicago hit opportunely behind Hoyt's wildness and shut out the Yankees, 4 to 0.

McKechnie's Tossers Halt Boston, 5 to 4

BOSTON, May 14.—Pittsburgh halted Boston's winning streak which had reached five games, by taking the first game of the series here, 5 to 4. Yde and then Kramer were given sensational support, especially by Traynor, Moore and Cuyler. Genewich was hit hard.

Singles by Cuyler and Traynor in the seventh were big factors in what proved the winning runs. The Braves did not have a man left on base.

Trbe Hits Francis And Defeat Red Sox

CLEVELAND, May 14.—The Indians drove Ray Francis, recently obtained by Boston from New York, from the box in the first inning here this afternoon, scoring five runs, which helped to defeat the Red Sox, 6 to 4.

Uhle pitched well in the pinches except in the eighth, when he walked two batters and hit another. Boone and Speaker made home runs. Speaker's coming with a man on base in the first inning.

JACK POSTPONES JAUNT TO PARIS

LONDON, May 14.—Because of his wife's illness, Jack Dempsey, American heavyweight champion, postponed his scheduled departure from England today for Paris.

He said his wife was "still ill from sea sickness and doctors have ordered her to take a complete rest for 48 hours."

Mrs. Dempsey was Estelle Taylor, a film star.

Phils Trim Cards.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14. — Philadelphia came from behind in the eighth inning and by scoring two runs defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 5, and gave them their sixth straight loss.

Hartnett's ninth home run of the season and circuit blows by Griffith and Friberg, the former pair in the sixth inning, gave the visitors a margin of one run until the flare-up in the eighth, that drove Keen to the showers.

Senators Lick Browns.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—Mogradge was in form and the Washington Senators defeated the St. Louis Browns 8 to 1, in the second game of the series. George Sisler, Brown playing manager, singled in the ninth for his fifth hit of the season and thus brought to twenty-eight his string of consecutive hitting games.

Brown's Homer Won.

BROOKLYN, May 14. — Eddie Brown's home run with the bases filled in the seventh inning proved to be the blow that gave Brooklyn a 9 to 8 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Robins went into the seventh inning trailing the Cards by five runs, three of which were made up before Brown's circuit drive.

vision. Consequently a heterogenous collection of buildings, paid for with federal monies was the result. Some of the local architects had ideas that were nothing if not original.

It is now felt that some such method of maintaining the standard of national monuments should be devised. It is but natural that any locality which has an unusual geologic formation, or some building or ruin of interest, should feel that these places should be national monuments. It is a matter of civic or local pride, and also it brings the tourists and thus fattens the local purse. And then again there is apt to be a political side to the matter.

In a pamphlet recently issued, Robert Sterling Yard, executive secretary of the National Parks Association, says: "There is immediate need that this or better procedure be made obligatory by law, for real danger lies in the popular discovery and exploitation of the system by local enthusiasts who will not hesitate to involke politics to have favorite home areas share its fame irrespective of standards. Signs of this are already apparent."

Under the present system national monuments are created by executive order of the president, and are administered by various departments of the federal government. There are now 54 of these monuments, 31 of which are administered by the Interior Department, 14 by the Department of Agriculture and nine by the War Department. Any department may petition the president to proclaim a national monument on land under its control and, if he complies with the request, that department will administer the monument.

No Established Standards.

Congress has never defined these national monuments, nor has it established any standards, and it is only due to the excellent judgment of government officials who have initiated the creation of these reservations that the present high standard has been maintained. The Smithsonian Institution is usually consulted regarding the scientific quality of proposed monuments.

These national monuments fall into four general classes—pre-historic, historic, geologic and giologic. There are 13 monuments conserving the remains of prehistoric civilization. They are Montezuma Castle, Casa Grande, Tonto, Navajo and Walnut Canyon, Arizona; Bandelier, Chaco Canyon, Gila Cliff Dwellings and Aztec Ruin, New Mexico; Yucca House, Colorado; Mound City Group, Ohio; and Hovenweep on the border between Utah and Colorado and Wapatki, Arizona.

Montezuma Castle is one of the most striking of these. It is located in a niche of a high red wall 80 feet above the level of the desert and is overhung by protruding rock. This building was the center of a prehistoric community of several hundreds of persons. The various rooms show individual taste, and also contain examples of a wide variety in plastering, decoration and ceiling and door construction.

Casa Grande which is in the south-central part of Arizona has an unusual interest. History shows that this had been deserted for probably two centuries before it was first seen in 1694 by Father Eusebio Francisco Kino. It has adobe walls six feet thick at their base, and which once rose four stories. The architecture of this and of many other ruins in this neighborhood indicate an advanced stage of civilization. There are also remains of a very fine irrigation system.

A Great Pueblo.

In 1923 the American Museum of Natural History deeded to the United States government the Aztec Ruin Monument which is a restored prehistoric pueblo of 500 rooms. The name in a way is misleading since a great many people would gain the impression from it that this was formerly inhabited by the Aztecs. However, this is not the case. The monument is named for the nearby town of Aztec, New Mexico.

Among the particularly interesting historic monuments are the Tumacacori Mission and the Gran Quivera. The former was built by the Indians under the direction of the padres and was conducted by them for more than a century. It is 60 miles south of Tucson, Arizona, and is in a fair state of preservation. The latter was built in 1620, and comprised an extensive monastery and convents, as well as a church.

The Geologic monuments mark limestone caves, volcanoes, natural briges, petrified forests, etc. It is felt that there are too many examples of limestone caves included in these geologic monuments. It is being urged that no more be added to the list unless it is proved conclusively that they are of exceptional interest, not only to the particular locality in which they are situated, but to the nation at large.

The first national monument was created in 1906, and is the Devil's Tower in Wyoming. This is the remainder which erosion has left of a much greater volcanic crystallization of upright hexagonal columns. The Indians viewed this fluted pillar with reverence, it was the source of legand and was used as a landmark for travel. The latest monument created is the Meriwether Lewis, administered by the War Department. This contains the grave of Captain Lewis of the Lewis and Clark expedition.

The areas of these monuments range from one acre, which is the size of the Cabrillo in California, being the headland where the Pacific Coast was first sighted, and Fort Matanzas, a relic of the Spanish invasion on the Matanzas river near St. Augustine, to 1,088,000 acres, the size of the Katmai National Monument in Alaska. Incidentally the name of the Katmai volcano was scarcely known except to geographers up until June, 1912, when it exploded with such violence that the dust "fell heavily for a hundred miles around, and, the following autumn, darkened the European sun."

The Wild Life National Monuments, as the name would imply, are for the purpose of conserving wild life of today. There are three of these—the Muir Woods, the only grove of coast redwoods remaining near a center of population; the Papago Saguaro, which preserves 2,000 acres of desert vegetation, and the Mount Olymps National Monument, created to preserve the Olympus elk.

BRIDGEPORT, May — Bridgeport council has voted to protest against the latest increase in telephone rates by the Ohio Bell Telephone company. The protest will be filed with the state utilities commission.

Wonderful For Sick Stomachs

Everyone who tries it willingly acknowledges that it does cure indestion, and certainly banishes dyspepsia and other Stomach distress almost instantly.

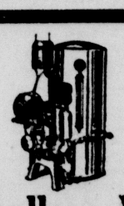

Read this letter from Wm. Starkey, Rock Creek, Ohio:

I was sick for several years, went to hospital after getting no relief from doctors and many remedies that I tried. Unable to work, and confined to the house, I was advised to try Doctor Orth's Stomach Remedy. I had no faith in anything any more, but I tried it and to my happy surprise it did me good. I am now perfectly well and for six months have been working every day in the blacksmith shop, eating everything I want and in perfect health.

It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy.

Money back if Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy does not do what we say it will, and remember that this remarkable remedy is the prescription of a practicing physician who used it with great success in exactly such cases as yours during a period of 60 years. We Eat Too Much.
Railroads and Land.
We Send Brains and Money.
Bad Cotton News.

—By ARTHUR BRISBANE.

(The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune).

Prof. Max Rubner of Berlin says Americans eat more on the average—3,308 calories daily—than any other nation. England comes next, with 2,997 calories.

It is certain that this country eats too much, and wastes about as much as it eats. Half we eat keeps us alive. One quarter keeps the doctors alive, and one quarter supports the undertakers and cemetery owners. Eat half, leave the table for 10 minutes and once digestion starts you'll know you've eaten enough.

German wise men figure that our earth, taxed to capacity, could produce enough to feed nine thousand million human beings, about six times the number on earth now.

Such estimates are worthless. If, as Haldane suggests, scientists succeed in making sugar about as cheap as sawdust and if the earth is intensively cultivated, there is no limit to the number that the earth could feed. Some of us might have to live up in the air permanently, as many Chinese live on boats, for lack of room on land.

With sharks and other sea wolves killed off, the ocean alone, could supply enough food for 10 billion human beings easily.

The whole western coast should be interested in the campaign to shorten the train time betewen the Atlantic and the Pacific. Three nights on the train from New York to Los Angeles can easily be accomplished.

Last August a shipment of silk from Yokohama to New York, traveled 3,123 miles from Seattle to New York in 73 hours, 25 minutes. The running time of a Pullman passenger car between New York and Los Angeles is 91 hours. Too long.

The citizens of Florida are working at improved transportation in a manner that will interest California, and it is to be hoped, wake up the transcontinental lines.

Last Monday at Fort Myers on Florida's west coast, the biggest mass meeting of citizens on record heard S. Davies Warfield, president of the Seaboard Air Line, promise that he would run another railroad, his own, into Fort Myers, the interstate commerce commission approving. Over 300 citizens subscribed money to provide terminal sites.

Heaven may give a land everything it needs—climate, soil, sunshine, beauty. But all is vain without adequate transportation.

Florida shows appreciation of the new railroad building that Mr. Warfield has done and is doing there.

California will show appreciation, at least as great, to the Santa Fe, the Union Pacific and any line that will take one night out of the transcontinental trip, thus bringing the Atlantic and the Pacific 600 miles nearer to each other.

Winston Churchill, discussing tariff on silk in the house of commons, drew from his dispatch case silk things, including stockings and proved his point. The house wondered at his versatility.

That isn't surprising. Churchill is the son of an American woman, Miss Jerome, whose father was W. R. Travers' partner in the old Wall Street firm of Travers & Jerome. Our young girls carry brains as well as money to Europe.

Cotton has gone to another low price for the new crop, and that's bad news. It is bad for the south, just as bad for the north. One part of the

Davis and Ferguson Pay Fines After Automobile Crash

C. H. Davis, of Chester, one of the four young people who figured in the automobile crash at the top of the Lisbon hill in Pleasant Heights, late Tuesday night, was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $10.80, when he was arraigned before Mayor Brown last night on a charge of intoxication.

Silas Ferguson, driver of the car, who was charged with reckless driving in connection with permitting four passengers to ride in one seat, was also assessed $10.80 when he pleaded guilty. Both fines were paid.

No charges were preferred against Misses Fay Wilson and Georgia Ivers, both of 325 Broadway, who were also passengers in the machine which was wrecked in a crash against a telephone pole.

LONGO SETS UP ALIBI DEFENSE AT TRIAL FOR MURDER IN WELLSVILLE

Seventeen Witnesses, Testifying in Lisbon Courtroom, Declare Accused Canton Man Was Eating Supper in Sweetheart's Home When Mrs. Vincenzio Desmonia Was Fatally Shot.

DOMINICK STRADA, AWAITING TRIAL ON LIKE CHARGE, CALLED TO STAND

Prisoner's Fiance, and Her Mother and Father Declare he Was Seated at Table in Dining Room of Sabbato Home With Strada When Shots Were Fired.

An alibi was set up by the defense today in the trial of Fred Longo, of Canton, charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Vincenzio Desmonia, who was fatally shot Sunday night, February 22, last, when she opened the door of her home in Wellsville in response to a knock.

Seventeen witnesses, including Dominick Strada, also of Canton, a prisoner in the county jail awaiting trial on a murder indictment in connection with the Desmonia case, testified before Judge James Glenn, of Coshocton, in common pleas court at Lisbon, that Longo was eating his supper in the dining room of the home of Michael Sabbato, father of his fiancee, in Third street, Wellsville, when the woman was shot down.

Miss Margaret Sabbato, a Wellsville school girl, who admitted she is engaged to wed Longo, corroborated the alibi testimony of the other witnesses.

The witnesses also said that Strada was a member of the dinner party, and he, too, was in the dining room of the Sabbato home when Mrs. Desmonia was fired upon.

Case Soon to Reach Jury.

Longo, Strada said, accompanied him in the Strada automobile from Canton to Wellsville to visit at the home of his swetheart.

The defense is expected to rest this afternoon, following which arguments will begin and Judge Glenn will deliver his charge to the jury.

Predictions were made that Longo's fate will rest in the hands of the jury before nightfall.

Indications are the case against Strada will depend upon the outcome of the Longo trial. In the event of Longo's acquittal, it is not improbable that the indictment against Strada will be nolled.

Attorneys James E. O'Grady, of Wellsville, and W. B. Moore, of Lisbon, are defending Longo, while Prosecutor Robert M. Brookes and his assistant, John E. Bauknecht, of East Palestine, are representing the state.

Samuel Yatti on Stand.

When court opened this morning, Samuel Yatti, who married Millie Sabbato, was the first witness called by the defense. Yatti told of Longo and Strada arriving at the Sabbato home at 11 o'clock the morning of February 22 and parking their car opposite the house. He said that during the afternoon, he, Longo and Strada took a walk to Twelfth street to visit friends and returned about 5 or 6 o'clock. He testified that Longo and Strada were at the table in the dining room when the shots were fired. When asked by Prosecutor Brookes if he was willing to do anything to help Longo out, he replied: "What can I help him. I know he's not the person who done anything."

Testimony that Longo and Strada were in the Sabbato home when the fatal shooting occurred was also given by Rocco Frontone, 15, a Wellsville high school boy. Under cross-examination he said that Longo and Sabbato went out on the street after the shots were fired with the rest of the people who were in the home.

Bride-Elect Is Witness.

Margaret Sabbato, an eighth grade pupil in Wellsville, said she was in her home when the shooting occurred and that the family was eating supper. She testified that Longo and

GIRL WITNESS AVOIDS CHUMS AS END COMES IN JONES CASE

Ethel Kun, 15, Wants to Quit Lorain School.

JURY DISAGREES

Pastor's Daughter Refuses to Discuss Elyria Trial.

LORAIN, O., May 14.—Ethel Kun, just 15 years old, but with experiences that usually come in maturer years, doesn't want to return to her studies in the eighth grade now that the trial of Lucille Jones, charged as a "procuress" has ended—tentatively, at least.

The young girl who blasted her own reputation when she took the witness stand to accuse the Lorain minister's daughter of responsibility for her own indiscretions with men, declared today that she cannot go back to school "because my teachers and the girls think I'm bad." She hastens to add: "The boys treat me all right, though."

Lucille Jones, who now faces the prospect of a new trial as the result of the discharging of the jury when it disagreed yesterday, refused to discuss the case today.

Her father, Rev. I. Howard Jones, also refused to talk. "There is nothing I can say," he said.

Second Trial Uncertain.

ELYRIA, May 14.—Prosecutor D. A. Baird will probably decide today whether or not he will again bring before a jury for trial Miss Lucille Jones, 20, daughter of Rev. T. Howard Jones, Lorain clergyman. The jury deliberating upon the evidence introduced in an indictment charging her with having procured Ethel Kun, 15-year-old girl, for William Monschein, reported late last night they were hopelessly divided and were discharged by Judge A. R. Webber.

Miss Jones either may be brought to trial again on this indictment or upon another, charging her with soliciting or attempting to solicit.

The jury, it was reported, stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. The men, of whom there were nine on the jury, were said to have furnished the not guilty ballots, and the three women and two of the men were reported to have voted guilty.

Another Sensational Case.

LORAIN, May 14.—Another juvenile vice sensation which may reach the proportions of the Lucille Jones case was revealed here today by Police Chief Theodore Walker and Probation Officer Harriet Cobb following the arrest of a 17-year-old Lorain girl in a downtown hotel.

According to Chief Walker, the girl told authorities of "wild parties" in a prominent Lorain dentist's office. She gave the names of a score of other young girls who had participated in such parties, the chief said.

It was stated by Chief Walker that the girl had informed him and Mrs. Cobb that Lucille Jones had made a date for her with a man, but that she did not keep the date.

The dentist probably will be arraigned in probate court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the girl, Chief Walker said.

BUDDY POPPY DAY MAY 23

Foreign War Veterans Will Aid Disabled Service Men.

Cloth poppies made by disabled World war veterans, will be sold here on Saturday, May 23, under auspices of the ladies' Auxiliary of Private Eddy Post No. 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The "buddy" poppy campaign has the endorsement of President Coolidge, Governor Donahey and Mayor Brown. Cloth replicas of the bloom, which dots the fields in Flanders, are made in the Veterans of Foreign Wars factory in Massachusetts by men, whose disabilities are such that they cannot take up vocational training or support themselves in any other manner.

Heretofore the "buddy" poppy campaign in East Liverpool has been spread out over a period of one week, but this year an effort will be made to wind up the drive in one day. Mrs. Laura Hughes is chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign. The sale will be in charge of high school students and Boy Scouts.

$200,000,000 NEEDED TO ENFORCE LAW AGAINST LIQUOR SMUGGLING

Estimate Made by Observers of Government's Gigantic Drive to Exterminate Rum Row in North Atlantic.

NEW YORK, May 14—If prohibition and liquor smuggling laws are to be enforced to the letter in United States the sixty-ninth congress must appropriate over $200,000,000 for the job.

That is one of the concrete conclusions of both official and unofficial observers of the govornment's gigantic drive to exterminate rum row, it was learned today.

This year's cost of enforcement of prohibition laws and operating the coast guard was approximately $40,000,000 and it is highly unlikely that congress will exceed that figure materially in the next budget regardless of what experts believe is necessary.

A survey of the rum situation disclosed that to afford air-tight protection to the coasts, the government must maintain a fleet of close to 100 sea-going cutters, 200 heavily armed patrol boats and a complement of smaller craft. It would take 7,000 to 10,000 men to man this "navy".

Cost of Dry Navy.

"Even that tremendous force would not be an absolute guarantee that no liquor would come in", a high official said, 'but it is the minimum force required to do the work right."

To create a prohibition navy of this proportion would mean an initial

Iowa Man Meets King by Brushing Aside Formality

WEMBLEY, England, May 14.—While some Americans spend thousands of dollars to be presented to King George at court through diplomatic introduction, John Cownie of Iowa brushed aside all formality today and went up to the king and shook hands with him.

King George and Queen Mary had come here to visit the exhibition. While they were sightseeing, a middle aged man approached the king, put out his hand and said.

"How do you do, King. Shake hands with America."

King George was astounded, according to bystanders, but smiled, shook hands and said:

"I hope you and all Americans are feeling well."

Queen Mary smiled at this. Cownie then said: "Meet my son, King."

Cownie presented his son, and King George shook hands with him.

Forty-five members of the high school band, headed by Director Ralph Johnson, were guests of the Kiwanis club at the weekly luncheon in the Larkins annex, Market street, today.

The speaker was Thurman "Dusty" Miller, humorist and editor of Wilmington, O. About 100 members of the club and their guests attended the meeting.

FOUR-IN-SEAT MOTORIST FINED

Stevenson, accompanied by another man and two girls, was arrested by Captain Conley about 8:30 o'clock last night while driving through the Diamond in a Ford roadster.

THREE ELECTRIC TRAFFIC LIGHTS WILL BE LOCATED IN THE DIAMOND

Iron Signal System, Six Feet in Height, Will be Established at Main Intersections by Police Department.

Three electric traffic lights, weighing approximately 400 pounds each, have been orderd by the police department for use in the Diamond it was announced today. They will supplant the signal system now being used at the three main street intersections.

The signs, constructed entirely of iron, are six feet in height. On the top is mounted the lamp, which can be seen from four points and which will be illuminated by electricity, controlled from a switch in the police booth. A metal pennant, donated by the Kiwanis club, bearing the word "Welcome," will adorn it. The signs will cost about $75 each.

According to Cheif McDermott, the smaller traffic signs are often used as targets for reckless automobile operators who drive after midnight. The new signs are of such weight that they cannot be easily overturned, much less destroyed.

The signals, which are being made in East Liverpool, are ready for the painter and will be installed within two or three weeks. They will be painted in blue and white.

country depends on the other's prosperity.

Somebody said it was amazing that human beings intelligent enough to make a watch still believe in ancient superstitions.

It is also amazing that the human race, intelligent enough to build up and protect fortunes of hundreds of millions has not found a way to protect and decently encourage men that work the ground and produce the real wealth.

President Coolidge and Mr. Mellon have been housekeeping successfully. Mr. Lord, head of the budget bureau, informs the President that for the national fiscal year ending June 30, there will be a surplus of $108,000,000. The country is fortunate in having Mr. Mellon, who knew enough about money to make a few hundred millions for himself, running the national money department and Mr. Coolidge who seems to think a president should handle all the people's money as carefully as he would his own.

Business on a big scale is growing in big things and little things. One chain of grocery stores does a business of more than $352,000,000 a year.

One five and ten store chain a little while ago announced as its ambition a business of $60,000,000 ayear. It does now more than $250,000,000 a year.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calonite powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

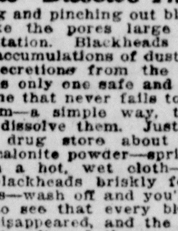

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at all leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at J. D. Holloway's. adv.

Longo Sets Up Alibi

Strada were at the table and that they left about 10 o'clock. When she was asked who went out to the car when Longo and Strada started for home, she replied, "Mother, dad and I went out with him to the machine. It was near our gate."

The witness testified under cross-examination, she was aged 16 years and that she was engaged to wed Longo.

"Who made the arrangements?" Mr. Brookes asked.

"He talked to mother about that."

"That's all," said the prosecutor.

Millie Yatti, a sister of the preceding witness, offered similar testimony. Under cross-examination, Mr. Brookes asked the question if her statement was not substantially the same as made before the grand jury. She replied, "I tell the truth always. The truth goes."

She also testified that because of previous letters Longo had been expected the Sunday, February 15, and that a meal had been prepared for him.

Dominick Strada Testifies.

Dominick Strada, awaiting trial on a murder indictment in connection with Mrs. Desmonia's death, also testified for the defense. He said he had lived in Canton 12 years, was married, the father of three children, and worked in a brick yard.

He said Longo had boarded with him six or seven years and that he was an Albanian, and Longo can speak Italian but cannot read it. He declared that Longo and he left Canton at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, February 22, and arrived in Wellsville about 11. It was his first trip to Wellsville, and they went to the Sabbato home, leaving the car near the house.

Strada testified that they had dinner there and during the afternoon went out for a walk, returning about 5:30 or 6 o'clock. When they returned they said the machine was still where they had left it. He said the family was at dinner in the evening when they heard shots fired, but that he paid little attention to them. After a while they all left the house and saw a crowd of people on the street. He related that they started for home at 10 o'clock.

Under cross-examination, Mr. Brooks asked the witness what he told him when questioned in the city building at Lisbon the night he was arrested. Strada replied that he didn't understand what he was talking about.

"Didn't you say you didn't know anybody was shot," Mr. Brookes asked.

"I didn't understand a word."

Civics Class Attends Trial.

The prosecutor asked the witness if he recalled a conversation he had with him at the county jail when Strada asked when he could see his wife. Strada replied "he always asked that."

He also testified under cross-examination that the curtains were on the car when they left Wellsville and that he did not go to East Liverpool from Wellsville and then to Lisbon, but that he followed the direct road.

The witness, asked by Attorney W. B. Moore, of counsel for the defense, if either he or Longo had a shotgun or revolver that day, replied in the negative.

"Did Longo, in your presence, fire a gun at Mrs. Mike Desmonia," Mr. Moore asked.

"The only gun I saw was my fork at the table."

Judge Glenn had to rap for order after this remark.

The class in civics of the Leetonia high school, 40 in number, in charge of Supt. E. P. Stonebraker, attended the trial today.

Defendant Engaged to Wed.

Nine witnesses yesterday afternoon testified that Longo and Dominick Strada were eating an evening meal in the home of Michael Sabatto on February 22, last, when Mrs. Desmonia was fatally shot. They were members of the Sabatto family, and another guest at the Sabatto home that evening.

Under direct examination the witnesses, including two boys, aged 8 and 10 years, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sabatto, told the same story. Cross-examination by Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes failed to cause them to change their testimony.

Longo, the defendant, is aged 26, and is engaged to Victoria Sabatto. It developed when Michael Sabatto and his wife, Mary, testified.

Thomas Brown, an Italian of Canton, acted as interpreter for the court and the defense. Back of the counsel table for the state sat Interpreter Thomas Campsey, of Lisbon.

When court opened at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Joseph Warren, of 334 Main street, Wellsville, was called by the defense, and he testified to driving the McLain ambulance to the Desmonia home after a call had been received. He said several cars were in the vicinity of the Desmonia home when he arrived, but that he could not identify the make of any of them. His helper was Carl Wolf.

Later in the afternoon Warren was recalled to the stand and testified that while several strangers visited the McLain morgue to view the body of Rocco Benvento, he could not recognize Longo as among the visitors.

Boy is Witness.

While Willis Murray, aged 10, was giving his testimony, Judge Glenn leaned toward the witness, intent upon hearing every word. The boy said he was in the street playing hide and seek with his brother and other companions when he heard shots, and that he became scared and ran west on Broadway toward Fourth street. He testified he saw a man jump "over the fence" at the Ackley house, going toward the hill.

Under cross-examination the boy said that the man was short, wore a soft hat, but that he did not see anything in the man's hands.

Two men were seen by Hugh Connors of 332 Lisbon street, who was standing on the porch of his home holding his baby, shortly after the shooting, he testified. He said five or six shots were fired. Connors declared that he saw a heavy man pass by and run along Lisbon street toward Fourth street and that another fellow came down an alley and traveled west along the switch. He testified that the men were about 20 to 25 feet apart and that one was "on a slow run." One of these men wore a heavy sweater, Connors said. Under cross examination, he said he did not notice any automobiles.

Longo Visited Creatore Home.

Mrs. Mary Creatore, 1205 Commerce street, who was born in Wellsville, declared that Longo and Strada visited her home at 3 o'clock the afternoon of February 22, and that she had known Longo for about five months, and that he had visited her home prior to that date. She testified that Strada and Longo left at 5:30 o'clock that evening.

During the cross-examination, Mrs. Creatore testified that on January 2, last, there was a christening at her home, and among the guests was Longo.

Antonio Creatore, her husband, testified of Longo being at his home the afternoon of February 22.

"Were you ever arrested?" asked Prosecutor Brookes.

"Object!" shouted counsel for the defense.

"This is a matter of bringing out the credibility of the witness, if the court pleases," Mr. Brookes suggested.

"Objections sustained," said the court.

Sabatto Star Witness.

Mr. Brookes made an effort to attack the credibility of a previous witness along the same line, but the court also sustained the objection of the defense.

The star witness for the defense proved to be Michael Sabatto, residing at 228 Third street, Wellsville, the father of 11 children, and who has resided in Wellsville 20 years, according to his testimony.

Sabatto said Longo had proposed to his daughter, Victoria, that he had met the defendant last October or November, and that he had been at his home several times.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 14.—The stock market was steady, but inactive, in the early trading today. The principal independent oil shares, started fractionally higher and sentiment was generally bullish, but buying demand soon ceased and an irregular tone set in. The placing of Marland in the dividend column was a favorable factor.

Professional traders who bought the oil stocks earlier in the week were ready to take profits, and, when little buying demand appeared, most of the early gains were wiped out. Pacific Oil, Louisiana and Midcontinent resisted selling pressure and standard oils made a better showing.

A number of the low priced railroad stocks were taken in hand and pushed up to higher levels in fairly active trading. The St. Pauls sold fractionally higher from the start. Wheeling and Lake Erie, Western Maryland, Chicago Great Western, Rock Island and other roads which are supposed to occupy strategic positions in the proposed consolidation of railroad properties, enjoyed good demand at higher prices.

Copper stocks were all higher United States Steel Realty lost about 5 points on profit taking following the declaration of an extra 10 per cent stock dividend: American sugar, on which no dividend was declared, sold up 2¼ points from yesterday's low.

Councilmen Will Inspect Proposed Eighth Street Job

Service Director and Engineer Will Accompany Solons on Trip to West End Tomorrow Night.

Councilmen, accompanied by Service Director A. G. Ellis and City Engineer John N. George, will inspect the proposed West Eighth street improvement at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

By the terms of a proposal made the city, the county commissioners and the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company will share in the cost provided council speeds legislation in order to take up the work at the same time that Wells avenue and Lisbon street, Wellsville, are being resurfaced this summer. This plan makes it necessary to close the road to Wellsville but once.

Service Director Ellis estimates the improvement from the West End school to the corporation line, where the job completed by Tatgenhorst & McLaughlin last year begins, will cost about $75,000. It will be necessary for the city to purchase private right of way along both sides of the street from Shadyside avenue to the corporation line, this alone costing about $15,000.

The county will pay $25,000, while the street car company has expressed its willingness to contribute not less than $15,000. Options on the property required in the proposed improvement have already been taken.

Action on the proposal probably will be considered by the solons at their meeting on Friday, May 22.

Emmett Smalley, 35, Arrested Here on Non-support Count

Emmett Smalley, 35, pottery worker, was arrested at his rooming house 1004 St. Clair avenue, by Captain of Police Conley early this morning on a warrant issued by the prosecuting attorney of Coshocton county, charging him with non-support.

The police today notified Coshocton authorities of Smalley's arrest and were asked to hold him pending the arrival of an officer.

Smalley eluded the police when they attempted to arrest him about three weks ago.

outlay of $150,000,000. It would cost $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 annually for operation. In addition at least $10,000,000 is needed for land enforcement.

The coast guard now has about 16 cutters. All but four are over 30 years old and soon will be ready for the junk heap, according to the information received here. Of the new ones, the Mojave is flagship of the prohibition navy and the others on special duty.

These facts will be brought out before congressional committees when the real story of the rum war is disclosed in the appropriation's fight, is was declared.

The tentative coast guard appropriation for 1926 is approximately $20,000,000, $8,000,000 less than in 1925. Ten million dollars is contemplated for land enforcement.

Present Warfare is Experiment.

Adequate enforcement of the smuggling laws would require one cruising cutter and two patrol boats for every 100 miles of coast line, according to experts. The coast line, not including bays and inlets, is approximately 10,000 miles, although this mileage is increased to 150,000 if all inlets are included.

The government's naval warfare against rum runners is more or less an experiment to determine just how much can be accomplished with the equipment at hand and how much money would be required for absolute enforcement.

General L. C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury, and generalissimo of prohibition, wants to know just what men and equipment he would need to really dry up the United States. He will soon make a formal report to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

must be done by the people who live in it—not by people from other places for they are boosting their own towns. The challenge of any club is not the size but the spirit of the people who make it. If some calamity would befall this town it wouldn't be 24 hours before every man in it would be down doing everything that could be done. Why don't you do that in every day life?

"There are three 'ins' that will keep this club or this town 'out.' The first is indecision, then there's indifference and the third—biggest of all the 'ins'—is intolerance. In a town of this kind we must live and take. We must be as one."

The attendance prize at today's meeting, a box of fruit, furnished by J. O. Heddleston, was awarded to R. S. Koehler after he had qualified. A meeting of the board of directors was held at the conclusion of the luncheon.

TWO ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY

Steubenville Pair are Caught by Local Police.

Charged with having robbed a foreigner named Cazo Mondich, yesterday afternoon in a Steubenville boarding house, of wearing apparel and other articles valued at approximately $200, Andy Logash, of Steubenville, was arrested last evening at the Pennsylvania Railroad tower at Yellow Creek, along with Dan Delach, said to have been an accomplice, by Chief of Police John Fultz, Motorcycle Patrolman Newton and other local officers.

The two men were turned over to Chief Paisley, of Toronto, who will take them before Steubenville authorities.

The men are said to have taken six razors, valued at $25; two suits of clothing, valued at $150; shoes, valued at $10; six silk shirts; a check for $7.75 and another for $22.

After the theft they are said to have placed the loot in two suit cases and boarded a freight for Wellsville. They dropped off at Third street, visited the Third street depot of the Pennsylvania railroad and left the two suit cases there, to be shipped to Massillon.

Authorities, however, were tracing their movements and only a short time after they had left the baggage room at the depot, long enough for them to reach Yellow Creek tower, where police believe they were awaiting a ride to main line points, Toronto authorities had notified Chief Fultz.

The men were arrested. They offered no resistance. The two suitcases were obtained from the C. P. baggage room again and later were identified by the owner.

Rejuvenation Subject of Treatise in 1600 B. C.

New York.—A chapter on "How to change an old man into a young man of twenty" has been found in the oldest treatise of medical science and surgery in the world, the Edwin Smith Medical Papyrus of 1600, B. C.

The discovery, made by Prof. James H. Breasted, was announced here by Alexander J. Wall, librarian of the New York Historical society.

The passage on rejuvenation was written on the back of the papyrus, evidently by one of the quacks who infested even the ancient medical profession.

Doctor Breasted has not as yet deciphered its details because he has devoted most of his work to the main text, which he considers the work of "a truly scientific man with an amazing knowledge of real medicine."

One passage reveals that the author knew that paralysis of one side of the body was caused by a brain affection of the other side—a fact lost for more than 3,000 years and rediscovered in modern times.

The papyrus was described by Professor Breasted as being "incomparably the most important body of medical knowledge which has survived to us from ancient Egypt, or, for that matter, from the Orient anywhere."

Russ Fishermen Again Seen in British Ports

Grimsby, England—Bolshevik Russia, which last year began organization of a fishing fleet in northern waters, has begun to extend its business to foreign shores.

The first Soviet steam trawler to be seen in a British port arrived in Grimsby recently and attracted much attention.

The trawler brought a load of fish caught off the Murmansk coast. The captain said other Russian trawlers would arrive regularly in British ports in the near future, as the Soviet fishing fleet was again getting on its feet, and, due to recent additions of fishing smacks, was well fitted to supply the Russian demand for sea food, thus eliminating the necessity of buying fish abroad.

Doctor Has Busy Voyage Prescribing by Radio

Plymouth, England.—Dr. Erskine Gray of the Cunard liner Antonia was kept busy on the last voyage of the Antonia from New York to Plymouth with calls for medical assistance from other vessels.

Four times daily for five days he prescribed by radio for a sailor who had been badly injured on the steamer Bosworth, hundreds of miles away. Then the American steamer Antinous reported its captain seriously ill. Doctor Gray diagnosed the case as one of pneumonia, and for three days prescribed treatment, which proved successful. Several other cases of minor nature, from ships many leagues distant from the Antonia, also were treated by radio.

CONSTIPATION means WEAKNESS

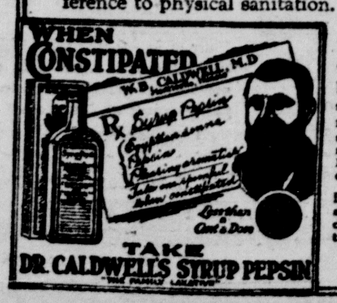

Constipation is practically universal among civilized human beings. It is a national curse causing inefficiency and physical unpreparedness. It causes disease, premature old age, lessens endurance and resistance, and many times fatal illness is directly traceable to its obnoxious results. The clear eye, healthy look, vim, vigor and vitality can be had only when the bowels are free and are moving regularly.

Dr. Caldwell's

SYRUP PEPSIN

The Family Laxative

—promptly relieves constipation. It is not a bitter medicine nor a griping, nauseating, uncomfortable physic. It is a pleasing liquid combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics that Dr. Caldwell, with his long and extensive practice, found effective and an aid to Nature in performing her proper functions when the bowels were mistreated through improper food, lack of exercise, and indifference to physical sanitation.

Gently Restores The Bowels To Health

The first dose will gently ease the bowels to action and as Nature resumes her proper functions, the dose may be gradually decreased. Your bowels should act at least twice daily. If they do not, you need Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. 10,000,000 bottles sold annually prove its effectiveness. Used nationally over 30 years.

It is sold everywhere medicine is sold—and guaranteed. Try it at our risk. Your druggist will return your money if it fails to do as promised.

Drying Up United States

Uncle Sam's "dry navy" has demonstrated in the last week that it is possible to curtail the supply of liquor furnished thirsty Americans by rum runners who ply off the North Atlantic coast. By reason of the rigid cordon established by the coast guard vessels, John Barleycorn is on the run.

The bottling up of Rum Row, with the almost absolute liquor blockade of New York city and its populous environs, is merely the most spectacular phase of the situation. There is a general tightening of enforcement lines ashore, in nearly every section. Federal zeal stimulates local zeal.

Not all of the coast can be guarded, and not all of the inland manufacture and distribution can be stopped. But it is proved that the more profitable markets can be virtually closed and the chief sources of supply cut off. Hold-over liquor stocks are running out.

And with state and municipal dry enforcement agencies cooperating by clean-ups within their jurisdiction, there is certain to be a big decrease in the flow of liquor, no small part of which is poisonous. A tri-partite campaign means a rapid drying up of the country.

French Debt Settlement

The news from Paris is that France is really getting ready to make a debt settlement with America. This follows a pointed reminder from Washington that the United States government is tired of delays and denials, and would like action.

"There will no no appeal to the usual sentimentality," says a correspondent, "but the matter will be approached on a sound business basis."

He adds that "France does not under any circumstances mean to repudiate a debt. The only question is to find a workable formula for its funding, consistent with France's present financial strength. Her financial position is not bad, but only badly complicated. Minister of Finance Caillaux expects to ask the United States to grant France exactly the same terms and facilities for paying her war debt to America as France granted to America after our Revolution."

That sounds reasonable. The important act sticking up like a sore thumb from the history of French loans to America in a time of need is that France demanded payment, and America paid every sou. This was shown forcibly in a recent statement made by Senator Borah, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations.

Americans have never had any desire to play Shylock or impose any hardship on France. But even France's friends on this side of the water have been shocked by the lightness with which the French seemed to regard their obligations. Never, up to this time, has there been any popular recognition in France that France should repay her loans, or any official indication of intent to pay.

Fortunately France now has a finance minister who understands both finance and public sentiment, and realizes how much France herself would benefit by an honest settlement.

Southern Land Settlement

A new land-settling movement is to be planned soon and gotten under way as rapidly as possible. It is directed toward some of the swampy, cut-over and abandoned farm lands of the south. The United States secretary of the interior, the commissioner of reclamation and other officials are to meet soon to discuss the whole problem. Everyone concerned is anxious to see the most business-like procedure followed, with avoidance of many of the mistakes made in settling the west.

Congress has authorized federal co-operation with the states and will appropriate the necessary funds at its next session. There will be more careful selection of the settlers, for it has been discovered that knowledge and interest are essential to agricultural success. Responsibility for financing the settlers will be shared by state and local interests.

In addition to the importance of getting idle or waste land reclaimed and under cultivation, the movement is intended to stem the tide of farm tenancy in the south.

The industrial development of the southern states is a fine thing, but it should not and probably cannot be promoted at the expense of sound agricultural development.

A City Defended

One of the opening features of the new British Empire exhibition at Wembley is a spectacular display called "London Defended." It will begin with a realistic representation of the great fire of London which began in a bakery shop in Pudding lane. The primitive methods of fire-fighting, mostly by buckets of water passed from hand to hand, will be shown. There will be the burning of Old St. Paul's and a final scene of a camp of homeless refugees.

After this comes a display of all the modern equipment for protecting a great city and a demonstration of the work of the London fire brigade, the Royal air force and the Metropolitan mounted police.

It will be a gorgeous spectacle, no doubt, with historical interest and thrills aplenty. But its chief value will lie in showing to the public the development of modern methods of protecting a large community. Fire-fighting nowadays is very efficient. If only fire-prevention was as thoroughly carried out!

West Toonerville News Item— By Fontaine Fox

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, May 14.—I spent a recent evening dipping into the sordid side of a great city. With a headquarters man I was following the trail of an auto bandit. The trail began in a street in the Forties where many bandits make their rendezvous.

I met and talked to a "stool pigeon," those mysterious connecting links between the police and the underworld. His face was futile and gray. Somehow he didn't seem to relish his job. He knows that when discovered he will likely be found some day pistoled to death.

On the upper West Side there were visits to several rather elegantly furnished apartments occupied by ladies whose mornins begin at dusk. Without cosmetics they seemed extremely colorless. One I was told had figured in a blackmailing case.

Around the dinner hour you see these women fitting snugly into the opulence of hotel foyers with beautifully masked impatience as though really waiting on someone in particular. They try to be smart and gay with the dark trumpets of oblivion ringing in their ears.

Then to some queer haunts of the East Side. A dim-lit cellar dive, grim and shadowy, that you imagine exists only in cheap fiction and cheaper melodrama. You could feel the flinty resistance to our presence. Even the proprietor scowled.

Next to Third avenue at one of those jinkle-jumble shops known in underworld parlance as "a fence." The proprietor was a bland, pock-marked fellow. He was glib about inconsequentials but tight-lipped when asked questions about members of his guild.

On the jaunt I met a fellow in Chatham square who is a flea trainer. He exhibits a group of them at fairs and street carnivals. He had the appearance of one of those second-rate and seedy operatic tenors. "How did you ever start training fleas?" he was asked. "Ach!" he replied, "that is a secret." And my guide told me he had spent many years in prison and that probably accounted for his profession.

When in New York, Charles M. Schwab goes to a vaudeville playhouse every Monday matinee. He seems particularly to enjoy the wise-cracking monologists and trained animal acts.

Vaudeville might be considered too slight entertainment for some, yet it seems to me it brings as representative audiences as will be found in the so-called legitimate theaters. The only difference is that at the variety show the dress is informal. At the same matinee where I saw Schwab I also saw Michael Arlen, the novelist; Irgin Cobb, the president of one of Chicago's biggest banks, and three well-known society women.

When Fifth avenue's traffic dries up at night some queer characters eddy in from heaven knows where. There are those muffled, stooped men with spiked stocks who poke about in refuse boxes for odd bits of broken china, string, cloth or what not. They wear great overcoats in all seasons and the pockets are bulging with trifles. They are harmless, pathetic and shrink from human contact. Now and then there is a wanderer in shining silk hat and ivory topped cane. He seems to be walking off a dinner with liquid trimmings at the club. Also the lonely private policemen who guard the big mansions that have massive and ponderous grilled entrances. Pigeons flutter down now and then from the cathedral. Fifth avenue appears to be a different street when night falls.

I met a New Yorker recently who has not slept more than three hours a night in five months. At first he lost weight and his appetite. He began to quit thinking about sleep and relaxed. He has now gained in weight, feels in good health and says he has done the best work he has done in years.

A National Monuments Commission

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—National park enthusiasts and those persons interested in the preservation of the natural wonders within the United States and the sites of historical interest, are now working diligently toward persuading congress to authorize a board to pass upon proposed national monuments. It is suggested that this board or commission be similar to the commission of fine arts, which was created to pass judgment on all federal buildings constructed in the United States.

As is well known, before the commission of fine arts came into existence federal buildings, such as postoffices, were constructed throughout the country without any central super-

Washing with Duz is so easy!

Just soak your clothes in warm Duz oxygen suds. No boiling, washboard scrubbing or blueing is necessary. Even the worst stained and grimed spots wash out in Duz suds when squeezed a bit between your hands. And Duz softens and whitens your hands.

FIRE LOSS HIGH DURING APRIL

Seven Counties Charged With 70 Per Cent of Waste.

Thirty-nine counties shared in West Virginia's April fire loss of $523,7000, a loss greater by $43,878, or 9 per cent, than in the corresponding month of 1924, it is shown by a report by State Fire Marshal Mont L. Topping, made public today.

Seven counties are charged with 70 per cent of the April fire waste. Ohio county led this group with a loss of $98,021, and, following in order, were Mingo, Fayette, Kanawha, Taylor, Cabel and Raleigh counties.

For the 10 months of the fiscal year ending April 30, the loss in West Virginia from 827 fires was $5,514,726, an increase of $1,167,571, or 27 per cent over this period the year before. For the 12 months ending same date the loss from 933 fires was $6,529,242, an increase of $788,731, or 14 per cent, over the 12 months preceding.

Sound value of property attacked by fire in April was $1,214,321 and the insurance $852,381. The fire list for the month included 70 dwellings, 14 barns, 11 stores, 6 garages, 5 manufactories, 3 sheds, 2 hotels, 2 club and lodge rooms, 2 warehouses, 2 shops, school house and office.

Fifty-two of the April fires were of unknown origin, five are attributed to incendiarism and suspicion attaches to three others. Defective flues caused 17 of the fires, electric wires six more, while five were due each to lightning, sparks from chimneys and ignition of woodwork from stoves. Burning rubbish was responsible for four fires and spontaneous combustion for two. The ever-present "smokers' carelessness" caused one fire and the "child with matches" another. Seven of the fires caught from adjoining premises.

Seven deaths and three accidents from fire were reported during the month, the fatalities occurring singly in Cabell, Harrison, Kanawha, Mingo, Monongalia and Ohio counties.

PICK CHARLESTON TO CAPTURE MEET

Charleston high school squad is favored over Triadelphia, Parsons, Pennsboro, Martinsburg and Washington and Irving teams in the eighth annual West Virginia high school track and field meet to be held under the auspices of the West Virginia university in the Morgantown stadium Saturday.

Many, however, do not regard Charleston as a "sure thing" for first honors and claim that if some of the smaller schools run true to form Charleston will be nosed out by one of the leading contenders. Although Charleston is the only school that qualifies a full team of 12 men in last Saturday's sectional meets several others will be represented by from eight to 11 men and will match last year's champs in strength if not in numbers.

NEW INJUNCTION CASE IN COURT

Hearing Is Opened in Federal Court at Wheeling.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 14.—After hearing initial statements of counsel for officers and members of the United Mine Workers of America today, contending service was illegal upon defendants in application of the West Virginia - Pittsburgh Coal company for a new strike injunction of a drastic nature, Judge Baker this morning continued proceedings until this afternoon. The continuation was the result of desire of the court to proceed with pending liquor conspiracy cases.

The miners' attack upon service in the application for the new injunction is that it was illegal, because they were in court answering to bond upon another contempt proceedings, still pending.

City Men Make Best Farmers Says Chief Of Dominion Bureau

WINNIPEG, Man. May 14.—The cry that city-bred men who take up farming for a living are doomed to failure is an exploded myth, according to Hon. William R. Motherwell, Dominion Minister of Agriculture. In the last ten years practically all of Canada's championships in international competition, he pointed out, have been won by former city men.

"Seager Wheeler, Saskatchewan wheat wizard, five times the holder of the world's championship," said Mr. Motherwell, "was the son of a fisherman and a clerk in a bookstore in England.

"Joseph W. Biglands, who won the oats championship in 1922, was a 'greenhorn' when he took up a homestead near Lacombe, Alta., fifteen years ago.

"Frank Collicutt, of Alberta, whose Hereford herd is restocking many farms all over the continent was a city newsboy.

"It is estimated that more than half of Canada's farmers were reared in the cities. Agricultural colleges, experimental farms, short courses and Government aid have made it possible for the city man, untrained in agriculture, to become a successful farmer."

"That's the way to held the country," commented a newspaper, championing the Old-Turk policy, the following day. "Family productivity alone can save our land. That is why polygamy should be held sacred."

Are You Like John Smith? All "Dragged Out?"

Every day some grateful man or woman writes us about what World's Catarrh Treatment has done for him or her.

Here's the case of John Smith, living at East Liverpool. His condition is typical of a lot of you. He got up in the morning tired out—his mouth tasted bad and he had to force himself to go to work. After work he was all in—just dragged around. Doctors didn't help him. A dozen remedies failed.

Didn't Know What Ailed Him

He didn't know what was the matter, but when our demonstrator saw him it was evident —was full of catarrh. Catarrh means stagnation. His stomach didn't work right; his digestion didn't give him the elements he needed to be full of pep. The membranes lining his stomach and bowels were full of congestion—just stagnation.

A single bottle of World's Tonic started him improving. Things began to clear up. Now Mr. Smith writes us:

"The change is wonderful. Three bottles of World's Tonic have made me a new man. I get up lively, ready for anything. My day's work doesn't tire me out, and after it I am full of energy and enjoy every minute.'

Why should you drag around half dead when this wonderful treatment may be had? Get started on it today. You can get World's Tonic at Carnahan's, also Brennan's Wellsville and all other first class druggists.

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with chronic indigestion or any stomach misery when this grand elixir that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

But there is more to say about this remarkable remedy—something that will interest thousands of despondent people.

FARM STOCK

HOGS ON LESS CORN INCREASES PROFITS

If there is one universal principle of swine production it is that "You can't make money in hogs without grass." This means, of course, pasture for summer and roughage of some kind during the winter. Raising hogs on less corn—which means feeding them supplements not so costly—is a subject concerning many farmers.

Results of experiments conducted by the animal husbandry department at South Dakota State college indicate that the introduction of alfalfa hay into the ration for hogs materially reduces the amount of corn required to produce a given amount of pork. In two trials conducted recently, one lot of pigs was fed only corn and tankage. Another lot was fed corn, tankage, linseed meal, and chopped alfalfa hay. Where it required 367 pounds of corn and 43 pounds of tankage to produce 100 pounds of gain in the first lot, it required 325 pounds of corn, 25 pounds of tankage, 12.5 pounds of linseed meal, and 12.5 pounds of alfalfa hay in the second lot.

Several experiment stations recommend chopped alfalfa hay only for use in a hog ration. To find out if whole alfalfa hay could not be substituted, a test was run at the South Dakota college farm. Three lots of hogs were fed chopped hay, while three other lots received good alfalfa hay in a rack. The results to date indicate that the pigs made approximately as good gains where the uncut hay was fed as when the hay was chopped. Further trials will be conducted along this line before final recommendations can be made.

"If our present results are borne out in further trials, it will be of great importance to the farmers of South Dakota," A. H. Kuhlman of the animal husbandry department points out. "If choice alfalfa hay fed in racks will produce gains approximately as good as those obtained in feeding chopped hay, many farmers in this state will be in a position to increase their returns from feeding pigs in the winter months. The addition of alfalfa hay has increased the daily gains in every instance; in fact, the average gains made by the pigs on trial compare very well with those made by pigs on forage during the summer."

Pasture Rotation Keeps Lamb Parasites Checked

The belief of progressive sheepmen that pasture rotation reduces the ravages of parasites among sheep and lambs received a scientific test last year at the Beltsville (Md.) farm operated by the United States Department of Agriculture. According to the report of the chief of the bureau of animal industry, just issued, that belief is correct. The goverment investigators found that a systematic rotation of forage-crop pastures enables lambs to reach market weight without visible effects of parasitic infestation.

The system, though keeping parasites in check, is not an absolutely sure method. While the frequent changes of pasture proved beneficial, they were not entirely adequate in the control of parasites of sheep carried throughout the year. Stomach worms are among the most serious pests attacking farm flocks and for their complete suppression some method of treatment such as dosing with dilute copper-sulphate solution is desirable. Details of the method are obtainable without cost from the bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C.

Pure Bred Pig Rivals Mythical Goose Story

The goose that is alleged to have laid a golden egg every day has a close rival in present-day pure bred live stock, judging from a report from a pig-club boy in South Carolina. "Five years ago last March," he states in a letter to the United States Department of Agriculture, "I joined a pig club that our county agent organized in this county. I had a pure bred pig then eight weeks old. Since that time she has farrowed about 100 pigs. She paid for my clothes three years in high school and gave me spending money also. I am now in my second year in college and she is still doing the same."

The owner of this pig is now participating in the "Better-Sire Better-Stock" campaign for the improvement of domestic animals and urges that the advantages of well-bred stock be kept constantly before the public.

Silage for Sheep

To feed breeding ewes just silage as practically the only feed would not be likely to give good results, but the ration for sheep can just as well be comprised partly of silage to very good advantage, and without injurious results of any kind. Feed not more than three to five pounds of corn silage per ewe per day. They will need some hay along with this and possibly during the later part of the winter they should have a little grain also.

Oklahoma Mules Show Decided Preference For Native State

new one. Oklahoma mules refuse to abide in the hills of Arkansas. At least, Andy Parsons, sheriff of Okfuske county, vouchsafes for the story.

Several days ago George Copeland a farmer who lives near Marshall, Ark., bought a span of mules from an Oklahoma farmer. When he let the mules into the pasture, he says, they took one look at the rocky soil and then jumped the fence. When last seen they were ambling down the road toward the Oklahoma line. Copeland asks Parsons to locate and hold the animals until he can sell them to an Oklahoma farmer.

NOW DOES ALL HER WORK

Has No Backache, No Bad Feelings Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Drove Her Illness Away

Milwaukee, Wisconsin.—"I was in a badly run-down condition and I would get weak spells and terrible headaches. I felt so badly last year that I could not do any housecleaning. The minute I would lift or stoop it seemed as if I was going to fall to pieces. I told a neighbor how I felt and she said that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was surely the right thing for me. I took four bottles then and in the fall of the year I took three. I had been treated by a doctor but he gave me an iron tonic and that did not help me. It seemed that the tonic did not have in it what the Vegetable Compound did. That gave me the strength and ambition I needed and I have gained in weight. This year before I started to clean house I got four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and am taking it right along. I tell all my friends about it and how much good it does me. They can notice it because I have gained in weight. I weigh 118 now and do all my work myself again."—Mrs. EMIL O. BRANDENBURG, 651 37th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

URBANA PASTOR USES ADS TO BOOST CHURCH

Publicity Stunt is "Delivering Goods," He Says.

NOVEL METHODS

Apply Business Sense to Religion, is His Advice.

CLEVELAND, O., New ideas on the application of religion and the perking up of church attendance are coming from at least three towns and cities in Ohio.

First, it was a young Dayton minister who made the declaration that the theologists no longer are the lions of popular thinking and importance and that business speaks an influential language.

Then there was the Cincinnati minister who observed that in this day and age of competition the church, to be attended, must herald its Sunday attractions just as widely as the Sunday movie managers publish theirs.

Clears Debts

The most recent idea is the publicity stunt of Rev. Ralph G. Carson, Baptist preacher, at Urbana. He not only manitains but has proved that newspaper advertising and "delivering the goods" will bring any church to the front.

Rev. Carson has told how he had just cleared his church of debt and how for the first time in years the congregation is beginning to overflow the building.

"It's just plain business sense applied to religion," he said.

Rev. Carson's secret lies in his going in for publicity with just as much force and gusto as do movie stars or real estate companies. His first move in his drive for attendance was to buy space on the movie pages of the local newspapers.

Advertises Church

His church advertisements were interspersed with movie "ads," and some of his layouts read like the following:

"Fashions in fig leaves—Modesty: What garb does it wear?"

"Hear Rev. Carson (Sunday night) tell why Dorothy Ellingson killed her mother."

"Gloria Swanson: Did she marry for love or money?"

Cuts of movie stars touched up his ads in "teaser" fashion.

Soon the young people turned out because of their direct interest in what he was talking about, and the older ones went to see "if it could be done."

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Here's the Latest--Cod Liver Oil in Tasteless Tablets

Greatest Flesh Builder For Skinny, Weak, Run-Down People--Full of Vitamines

No more will weak, thin, unfortunate children cry in protest when the nasty, fishy-tasting, horrible-smelling cod liver oil is brought out.

Medical science progresses rapidly, and now you can get at your druggist's real, genuine cod liver oil in sugar-coated tablets that young and old can take with ease and pleasure.

Even the run-down and skinny grown-ups, who ought to take cod liver oil, because it really is the greatest vitamine food and builder of healthy flesh in the world, will feel extremely joyful when they read this welcome news.

Of course, doctors have been prescribing cod liver oil in tablets under another name for several years, but it is only of late that one can walk into a drug store and get a box of these flesh-producing tablets just as easy as a bottle of cough syrup.

Thin, run-down, anaemic men, women and children who need to grow strong and take on flesh are advised to get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, and if you don't gain 5 pounds in 30 days just get your money back.

One woman gained fifteen pounds in five weeks, according to her own doctor—another ten pounds in three weeks. A very sickly child, aged nine, twelve pounds in seven months, and now plays with other children and has a good appetite.

Just ask for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Carnahan's and Mathews' Medicine Store or any good druggist will tell you that they are wonderful flesh and health builders. Only 60 cents for 60 tablets—and don't forget that they are wonder workers for feeble old folks.

Get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and beware of imitations.

'CODE OF WEST' AT CERAMIC

Zane Grey's Stirring Novel Depicted on Screen.

"Code of the West," Paramount's film version of Zane Grey's stirring novel of the same name, which opens tonight at the Ceramic theatre, shows you what happens when a flapper from the wide open places of the east meets a cowboy from the great open spaces of the west.

The resultant romance leads to some very interesting situations, develops some fast and furious action, flavored with considerable comedy, and builds to as melodramatic a climax as has ever been flashed upon the screen.

The theme of the story brings out the striking contrast in the viewpoints of the east and the west. The plot concerns Georgie May Stockwell, a typical New York flapper, who goes to Arizona for her health and vamps all the cowboys at the Thurman ranch. In particular, she brings to bear all her feminine charms on Cal Thurman, the shy, awkward, younger son of the family, with the result that he falls desperately in love with her and finally proposes.

From that point the action takes an unexpected turn, for Georgie, with characteristic feminine perversity, turns him down, and Cal, with equally characteristic western directness, forces her, at the point of a gun, to marry him. The subsequent events involve a strange honeymoon in a lonely cabin which is interrupted by a raging forest fire that solves the love tangle in thrilling and dramatic fashion.

Owen Moore, as the young cowboy who turns caveman, gives a very creditable performance; and Constance Bennett, as the flirtatious flapper, has opportunities out of the ordinary for splendid acting and makes the most of them. Others who deserve honorable mention include Mabel Ballin, Charles Ogle and David Butler.

"Code of the West" has been very carefully adapted to the screen by Lucien Hubbard, and the production as a whole is one of which William K. Howard, who directed it, has every reason to feel proud.

Englishmen Turn to Mexican Drinks; Tire Of Old Beverages

LONDON, May — While thirsty Americans strive to enjoy "bootleg hooch," the jaded palates of England, tiring of whisky, beer and wines, are seeking new beverages.

An enterprising representative of one of the leading hotel syndicates has just returned from Mexico and is to be followed shortly by large consignments of tequilla and pulque, Mexico's favorite beverages.

Tequilla may be a good drink for Mexicans, but what its effects will be upon staid and dignified Englishmen are something to contemplate.

Premier Mussolini Is Great Administrator, Ex-Envoy Says

Richard Washburn Child Tells of Rise of Italian Premier, Who Once Slept on Pier.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May.—Patience, good luck, health, simplicitv and faith in one's fellow men are the essentials of leadership, according to Richard Washburn Child, noted author, lecturer and one-time Ambassador to Italy, during a recent visit here.

Child considers health one of the greatest factors leading to greatness. He says without good health the road to the pinnacle of success is long and treacherous.

"The breaking down of health," he observes, "usually occurs at the very time when the step to greatness should be made. Roosevelt knew this. Giolitti, who, at eighty-four, takes a major part in Italian politics, keeps a rigorous schedule of personal habits, and as a result remains active.

vironment of war master him; he mastered it. I've seen him at two international conferences when there were great crises, observing his regular personal program. One afternoon at the Genoa conference, when he faced defeat at home and humiliation abroad, and I suppose he had gone off to brood, I found him asleep in a wicker chair under an oleander tree on the banks of the Ligurian river."

"Promote Cal."

Child says President Coolidge has the ability to forget his worries, even when driven at the hardest. He says, "I talked with the President once about the strain of the Presidency. He showed me a piece of paper, which he had received upon assuming the Presidency. It was from the South, in an illiterate hand, and said: 'Dear Cal, I congratulate you and hope you will work hard, so you will be promoted."

In discussing the simplicity phase of his formula for greatness Child remarked, "It plays a great part between greatness and near-greatness. In an age that is not supposed to be romantic, Mussolini is a romantic figure. I knew him before he came into power. At Lausanne he called me into his room and pointed out a stone pier on the lake. 'The last time I slept in Lausanne I slept on that pier.' A day or two after the march of the Fascisti on Rome he said to me, 'I'm not as excited as the press of the world is. I know of no man who wants my job.'"

In speaking of the present Italian government, and of the Fascisti in particular, Child declared, "It is hard to conceive of a more perverted idea of the Revolution in Italy than is found in the United States. There was a flabby government, which had worn out. The old multi-party government was producing new ministries every little while. The citizen ship became cynical and despaired of having any government at all; but the Fascisti was gaining strength. In the Spring of 1922 I telegraphed the President that it was perfectly clear there would be some sort of dictatorship established in Italy.

Mussolini Playful.

"I was comissioned by the State department to find the man. I asked an Italian press correspondent to bring Mussolini to my room. Mussolini was reluctant, and suspicious of me.

"We got along badly until my two little daughters came into the room. In three or four minutes he was under the piano, barking and growling for them lieke a caged bear. That broke the ice. At that time he had no idea of the march on Rome, but spoke of some sort of coalition government.

"The last time I saw Mussolini I inquired what he was doing to make himself effective. This man who was called political evangelist by some and demagogue and brute by others, but turned out to be a great administrator, replied that every night he spent a half hour thinking over what had been done and a second half hour thinking of what had to be done. I said, 'What yardstick do you apply?' and he answered, 'I always say to myself simply, simplify, simplify!'"

Child says that at the end of the Lausanne conference Lord Curzon, of England, and the Turkish representative, Ismet Pasha, were unable to meet except in the rooms of the American Embassy, for they were like two strange bulldogs.

ELYRIA, May—The Oberlin graduate school of theology received a $20,000 gift, to be known as the "Monroe Scholarship," which will provide a $1,000 a year graduate scholarship.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 2

Tea Production Today

If the Chinese, who first discovered tea, had realized the possibilities of the trade and had studied the nature and requirements of the plant, China might still be the largest tea producing country. Centuries of neglect, however, stunted the growth and caused the quality to deteriorate. In the mountains of Ceylon and India, tea was found to flourish. Scientific methods of cultivation and manufacture were introduced with remarkable results. Now the finest tea grown in the world and by far the largest quantity comes from these countries. "SALADA" is mainly blended from flavory India and Ceylon teas.

DERBY JAM IS NEAR HEIGHT

Louisville's Hotels and Rooming Houses Crowded.

By Thomas Temple Hoyne.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—Today the stream of visitors coming to this city for the fifty first running of the Kentucky Derby next Saturday began to rise to the flood stage it will reach by tomorrow night.

Every hotel in the city is already filled to capacity. Guests who took rooms with the understanding that they would give them up today so that others who had already reserved them for the derby period might move in, are seeking accommodations in private houses.

And everybody is now at work trying to dope out the winner of the big race. The consensus is that picking it this year is going to be a tough job.

In trying to dope out the winners of horse races man engages in the most popular form of constant human endeavor—the effort to make certainty out of what, because of its nature, must forever remain uncertainty.

Below, however, is a list of 20 probably Derby starters with their weights, owners and jockeys. And the winner is undoubtedly here, so if anyone cares to pick him—

Quatrain, 126 lbs.; F. Johnson, owner; G. Bruening, jockey.

Walsh Asserts Smoky City Fans Clamor for Somebody's Head, Preferably That of Dreyfuss, Rather Than Bill McKechnie.

By Davis J. Walsh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 14.—Pittsburg fans, ever a mercurial lot, have turned their backs on the Pirates because of the Club's inept performances and today are calling loudly for somebody's head, preferably that of Barney Dreyfuss. That worthy, rather than Bill McKechnie, has been blamed for the mid-winter deal, whereby the Pirates gave up fifty percent of an all-star infield and received in return one hundred percent of jolly old Barnum.

The transaction took away "Rabbit" Maranville, the best second baseman in the league last year; Charley Grimm, a gifted first baseman and Wilbur Cooper, until recently one of baseball's leading left handers. It brought here Al Niehaus, a minor leaguer who apparently can neither hit nor field; Grantham, another infielder who got away to a standing start and Aldridge, a right hand pitcher who held out so long that he has been of no use to the club to date.

The thing has begun to look as gour as last week's milk, and before the team ventured into the east, local fans were staying away from Forbes Field in droves. The writer took the trouble to inquire into the local situation today and found apathy rampant, a ten dollar word meaning without restraint.

The ponplace, it seems, does not mean to rise to another Pirate failure. It saw the Pirates of 1921, all of 7½ games in the lead in September, yet fail to win the pennant. It saw the 1922, 1923 and 1924 clubs apparently headed for the flag, only to bog down at critical moments.

Now it finds itself in the position of the man who investigated the cigar clipper with the tip of an inquisitive finger. It is beginning to lose confidence in the situation. Instead of being a contender from the drop of the derby, as indicated by advance calculations, the Pirates first were knocked off by everybody in the west and then went east to Philadelphia where they fared none too well, if at all.

This record has been taken locally as sufficient proof that the club has lost its collective shirt in the much-discussed club deal. In fact, the only man who seems to think otherwise is Barney Dreyfuss. He stoutly maintains that time will justify all and, meantime, the club has gone into reverse with great alacrity.

Grantham came here with a reputation of being an indifferent fielder but a good hitter and base runner. In the last named department he has been a disappointment because no one has yet invented a system of successful base running in the dugout. Grantham hasn't hit the size of his neck band and has been out of the line-up for most part.

But with Neihaus going so poorly, something had to be done; so the chances are good that Grantham will be in there from day to day, regardless of his light hitting.

Meanwhile Pittsburgh fans are thinking very rugged thoughts about Maranville and Grimm.

HERE'S ODD ONE FOR RECORD BOOK

Baseball has already begun to supply the dyed-in-the-wool fans with freak happenings to chew over. Burleigh Grimes, veteran Brooklyn pitcher, gave them an interesting stunt the other day while hurling against the Braves. In the sixth inning Grimes fanned three of the five batters who faced him. The other two, however, collected singles and the Braves grabbed two runs before the inning was ended.

Marriott, first up, fanned. Harris singled. Welch put him on third with a single. Burrus went to bat. Grimes uncorked a wild pitch that scored Harris, Welch moving to second. Barrus fanned. Grimes snapped a throw to second to catch Welch off the bag and the ball went wild, Welch going to third. Grimes then uncorked another wild pitch and Welch scored. Then Burleigh fanned Padgett to end the inning.

Look that one over.

Tagging The Bases

The ancient soup bone of Artie Nehf held the Reds to only one hit and the Giants won, 3 to 0. The champions are now four and one half games in front.

Ed. Brown did a Frank Merriwell with the bases full and the ensuing four runs enabled the Dodgers to outlast the Cardinals.

The Pirates came out of their trance and whipped the Braves, 5 to 4, due to good pitching by Yde and Kremer. Boston had won five straight.

The amazing Phillies slugged their way to a 6 to 5 victory over the Cubs, whose three homers failed to stem the tide.

"No hit" Charley Robertson whitewashed the Yanks, limiting them to three bingles and six fouls. Only two New York players reached second and they died of lonesomeness. Score: Chicago, 4, Yankees, 0.

The debut of Pitcher Ray Francis with the Red Sox was an unqualified success—for Cleveland. The Indians won, 6 to 4, scoring five runs in the first inning and driving Francis from the mound.

The Athletics maintained their merry race, bowling over the Tigers by a score of 3 to 1.

Washington massacred the Browns, 8 to 1, but Sisler obliged the St. Louis fans by hitting safely in his twenty-eighth consecutive game.

FERRIANS LOSE TO LOCAL NINE

In a clash featured by the hard hitting of the locals, the East Liverpool Ex-Highs trimmed the Smiths Ferry Independents, 14 to 7 last evening at Smiths Ferry.

Mackey and English held the hard hitting Ferrians to a total of five bingles while the Potters collected 11.

Kemp of McKeesport, Pa., was elected manager of the Bethany basketball team for the 1926 season. Kemp has been serving as assistant manager for the past two seasons and his election came as a just reward for his faithful and efficient work. He will be assisted by Warren MacLean of Pittsburgh, who is to serve as junior assistant manager.

Nehf Blanks Reds.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Art Nehf shut out the Cincinnati Reds with one hit, the Giants winning the opening game of the series by 3 to 0. The only hit was a single by Rube Bressler in the second inning.

Nehf also distinguished himself with five assists.

George Kelly led the scoring for the Giants with a triple and a double which netted two runs.

TWO CONTESTS FOR HIGH NINE

New Cumberland and Newell on Week's Card.

Newell and New Cumberland high school nines will be the next baseball opponents for the East Liverpool Scholastics, the locals being scheduled to play the Newell nine Friday at Patterson Field and the New Cumberland tossers Saturday at New Cumberland.

The Scholastics already have one victory to their credit over the Newell aggregation and feel confident they can make it two in the coming contest.

They will have to play heads-up baseball in New Cumberland, however, for the Hancock county seaters this year have just as good a club as in previous seasons.

Athletics Cop Another.

DETROIT, May 14. — Detroit garnered but three hits off the offerings of Baumgartner, Groves and Harriss, and the Philadelphia Athletics won by a score of 3 to 1.

Baumgartner was removed from the batting order in favor of a pinch hitter in the seventh inning, Groves taking the mound to be relieved in the eighth by Harriss, who held the Tigers without a hit for the rest of the game.

EXCHANGE PROFESSORSHIP IDEA IS CARRIED TO FOOTBALL FIELD

FIELDING H. YOST

WILLIAM ROPER

For several years now American and foreign colleges have been exchanging professors for various periods in the belief that such exchanges broaden the scope of the colleges and give the men involved new thoughts on their work. This idea has now invaded the athletic angle of collegiate activities. Fielding H. "Hurry up" Yost, famous coach of the University of Michigan eleven, and Harvey Emery, one of his aides, have just returned to Ann Arbor after directing the spring activities of the Princeton football squad. And William W "Bill" Roper, famous Princeton mentor, with two of his aides, Al Wittmer and Nat Poe, are now working with the Wolverine candidates.

Sox Blank Yankees.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Charley Robertson let New York down with three hits, while Chicago hit opportunely behind Hoyt's wildness and shut out the Yankees, 4 to 0.

McKechnie's Tossers Halt Boston, 5 to 4

BOSTON, May 14.—Pittsburgh halted Boston's winning streak which had reached five games, by taking the first game of the series here, 5 to 4. Yde and then Kramer were given sensational support, especially by Traynor, Moore and Cuyler. Genewich was hit hard.

Singles by Cuyler and Traynor in the seventh were big factors in what proved the winning runs. The Braves did not have a man left on base.

Trbe Hits Francis And Defeat Red Sox

CLEVELAND, May 14.—The Indians drove Ray Francis, recently obtained by Boston from New York, from the box in the first inning here this afternoon, scoring five runs, which helped to defeat the Red Sox, 6 to 4.

Uhle pitched well in the pinches except in the eighth, when he walked two batters and hit another. Boone and Speaker made home runs, Speaker's coming with a man on base in the first inning.

JACK POSTPONES JAUNT TO PARIS

LONDON, May 14.—Because of his wife's illness, Jack Dempsey, American heavyweight champion, postponed his scheduled departure from England today for Paris.

He said his wife was "still ill from sea sickness and doctors have ordered her to take a complete rest for 48 hours."

Mrs. Dempsey was Esteile Taylor, a film star.

Phils Trim Cards.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14. — Philadelphia came from behind in the eighth inning and by scoring two runs defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 5, and gave them their sixth straight loss.

Hartnett's ninth home run of the season and circuit blows by Griffith and Friberg, the former pair in the sixth inning, gave the visitors a margin of one run until the flare-up in the eighth, that drove Keen to the showers.

Senators Lick Browns.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—Mogradge was in form and the Washington Senators defeated the St. Louis Browns 8 to 1, in the second game of the series. George Sisler, Brown playing manager, singled in the ninth for his fifth hit of the season and thus brought to twenty-eight his string of consecutive hitting games.

Brown's Homer Won.

BROOKLYN, May 14. — Eddie Brown's home run with the bases filled in the seventh inning proved to be the blow that gave Brooklyn a 9 to 8 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Robins went into the seventh inning trailing the Cards by five runs, three of which were made up before Brown's circuit drive.

In the first quarter of 1925 Graham Brothers built and sold more 1½ ton trucks than any other manufacturer in the world.

In the 1 ton and 1½ ton fields combined, Graham Brothers ranked second.

Publication of these facts is prompted wholly by the belief that truck buyers are entitled to know the trend of the times. With the facts before them, few would consider buying other equipment without first determining the reasons for Graham Brothers rapid advance.

vision. Consequently a heterogenous collection of buildings, paid for with federal monies was the result. Some of the local architects had ideas that were nothing if not original.

It is now felt that some such method of maintaining the standard of national monuments should be devised. It is but natural that any locality which has an unusual geologic formation, or some building or ruin of interest, should feel that these places should be national monuments. It is a matter of civic or local pride, and also it brings the tourists and thus fattens the local purse. And then again there is apt to be a political side to the matter.

In a pamphlet recently issued, Robert Sterling Yard, executive secretary of the National Parks Association, says: "There is immediate need that this or better procedure be made obligatory by law, for real danger lies in the popular discovery and exploitation of the system by local enthusiasts who will not hesitate to involke politics to have favorite home areas share its fame irrespective of standards. Signs of this are already apparent."

Under the present system national monuments are created by executive order of the president, and are administered by various departments of the federal government. There are now 54 of these monuments, 31 of which are administered by the Interior Department, 14 by the Department of Agriculture and nine by the War Department. Any department may petition the president to proclaim a national monument on land under its control and, if he complies with the request, that department will administer the monument.

No Established Standards.

Congress has never defined these national monuments, nor has it established any standards, and it is only due to the excellent judgment of government officials who have initiated the creation of these reservations that the present high standard has been maintained. The Smithsonian Institution is usually consulted regarding the scientific quality of proposed monuments.

These national monuments fall into four general classes—pre-historic, historic, geologic and giologic. There are 13 monuments conserving the remains of prehistoric civilization. They are Montezuma Castle, Casa Grande, Tonto, Navajo and Walnut Canyon, Arizona; Bandelier, Chaco Canyon, Gila Cliff Dwellings and Aztec Ruin, New Mexico; Yucca House, Colorado; Mound City Group, Ohio; and Hovenweep on the border between Utah and Colorado and Wapatki, Arizona.

Montezuma Castle is one of the most striking of these. It is located in a niche of a high red wall 80 feet above the level of the desert and is overhung by protruding rock. This building was the center of a prehistoric community of several hundreds of persons. The various rooms show individual taste, and also contain examples of a wide variety in plastering, decoration and ceiling and door construction.

Casa Grande which is in the south-central part of Arizona has an unusual interest. History shows that this had been deserted for probably two centuries before it was first seen in 1694 by Father Eusebio Francisco Kino. It has adobe walls six feet thick at their base, and which once rose four stories. The architecture of this and of many other ruins in this neighborhood indicate an advanced stage of civilization. There are also remains of a very fine irrigation system.

A Great Pueblo.

In 1923 the American Museum of Natural History deeded to the United States government the Aztec Ruin Monument which is a restored prehistoric pueblo of 500 rooms. The name in a way is misleading since a great many people would gain the impression from it that this was formerly inhabited by the Aztecs. However, this is not the case. The monument is named for the nearby town of Aztec, New Mexico.

Among the particularly interesting historic monuments are the Tumacacori Mission and the Gran Quivera. The former was built by the Indians under the direction of the padres and was conducted by them for more than a century. It is 60 miles south of Tucson, Arizona, and is in a fair state of preservation. The latter was built in 1620, and comprised an extensive monastery and convents, as well as a church.

The Geologic monuments mark limestone caves, volcanoes, natural briges, petrified forests, etc. It is felt that there are too many examples of limestone caves included in these geologic monuments. It is being urged that no more be added to the list unless it is proved conclusively that they are of exceptional interest, not only to the particular locality in which they are situated, but to the nation at large.

The first national monument was created in 1906, and is the Devil's Tower in Wyoming. This is the remainder which erosion has left of a much greater volcanic crystallization of upright hexagonal columns. The Indians viewed this fluted pillar with reverence, it was the source of legand and was used as a landmark for travel. The latest monument created is the Meriwether Lewis, administered by the War Department. This contains the grave of Captain Lewis of the Lewis and Clark expedition.

The areas of these monuments range from one acre, which is the size of the Cabrillo in California, being the headland where the Pacific Coast was first sighted, and Fort Matanzas, a relic of the Spanish invasion on the Matanzas river near St. Augustine, to 1,088,000 acres, the size of the Katmai National Monument in Alaska. Incidentally the name of the Katmai volcano was scarcely known except to geographers up until June, 1912, when it exploded with such violence that the dust "fell heavily for a hundred miles around, and, the following autumn, darkened the European sun."

The Wild Life National Monuments, as the name would imply, are for the purpose of conserving wild life of today. There are three of these—the Muir Woods, the only grove of coast redwoods remaining near a center of population; the Papago Saguaro which preserves 2,000 acres of desert vegetation, and the Mount Olymps National Monument, created to preserve the Olympus elk.

Everyone who tries it willingly acknowledges that it does cure indestion, and certainly banishes dyspepsia and other Stomach distress almost instantly.

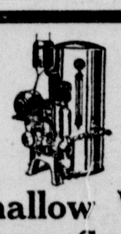

Read this letter from Wm. Starkey, Rock Creek, Ohio:

I was sick for several years, went to hospital after getting no relief from doctors and many remedies that I tried. Unable to work, and confined to the house, I was advised to try Doctor Orth's Stomach Remedy. I had no faith in anything any more, but I tried it and to my happy surprise it did me good. I am now perfectly well and for six months have been working every day in the blacksmith shop, eating everything I want and in perfect health.

It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy.

Money back if Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy does not do what we say it will, and remember that this remarkable remedy is the prescription of a practicing physician who used it with great success in exactly such cases as yours during a period of 60 years.
